To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME (EDUCATION)

Department.

Sir,

In their order No. 1186 Home (Education) dated 15th September 1917 Government sanctioned the payment of annual subscription to the journal "Prarambha Vidya" at the enhanced rate of Re. 1-8-0 per copy with effect from 1st January 1918. Messrs Rama & Co., the publishers of the journal now report that owing to the abnormal rise in the price of printing paper, they have been obliged to increase the subscription still further from Re. 1-8-0 to Rs. 2/- per annum with effect from 1st January 1919 and they request that in view of this circumstance as well as of the fact that the number of pages of the journal has been increased from 24 to 32, Government may be pleased to sanction the rate of subscription at Rs.2 per copy from 1st January 1919 in respect of the 47 journals that are at present being supplied to the Government Girls' Schools in the Telugu Districts. A copy each of the three latest issues of the journal together with particulars as to the number of copies printed by them were then obtained from the publishers and furnished to the Superintendent, Government Press, for opinion as to the reasonableness of the subscription now claimed by the publishers and also the cost of printing the number of copies issued by them independently of editorial expenses, etc. and at the same time I informed him that 47 copies of the journal were first subscribed for by the Department from 1st January 1916 at the annual rate of subscription of Re.1-1-0 per copy and that in September 1917 on further representation the rate of subscription was increased to Re.1-8-0 per copy with effect from 1st January 1918. The Superintendent, Government Press, states in reply that the cost of printing and paper have been progressive for the past three years, and that an increase of 25% should also be allowed from the date at which the journal was enlarged to 32 pages, and that the printing and binding charges together with the paper are only fairly covered by an annual subscription of Rs.2 per copy calculated on the basis of 500 to 900 copies monthly. In these circumstances, I beg to support the proposal and have, therefore, the honour to recommend for the sanction of Government the payment of a subscription of Rs.2 per copy with effect from 1st January 1919.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

for Director of Public Instruction.

Subd.: that the point suggested by Jails seems to be a bit technical to be specifically mentioned in the draft.
The enhanced rate is for the matter of that all subscriptions to periodicals are ordinarily inclusive of postage.

7-7-19

As the original rate of

Rate -- was inclusive of postage (p. 1183 & 15.9.17) (E)

the present rate shd
also likewise be inclusive

grt. There is no harm in inserting the word in the
