3. The Principal of the Ceded Districts College, Anantapur, was addressed by me, reports that as the College does not possess the apparatus required for work in Light though ents therefor were sent long ago, it is not possible to vide instruction to students of Group I of the Senior B.A ss this year. These students cannot therefore be re- nsferred to the Ceded Districts' College, Anantapur. They l have to continue their study in the Senior B.A. class the Presidency College, Madras, during 1919-1920. I have honour to request that the special scholarships granted them in form of a whole remission of the fees due for the rt term of 1918-1919 in the G.
