Indian Educational Service

Communicating to the Director of Public Instruction and to the Accountant-General letter from the Government of India sanctioning an ad interim scale of pay for the officers of the —.

READ—the following papers :—

I

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. H. SHARP, C.S.I., C.I.E., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education (Education).

To—the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Home (Education) Department.

Dated—Simla, the 30th May 1919.

No.—562.

I am directed to refer to your letter No. 951, dated the 17th July 1918, regarding the reorganization of the Educational Services. The issues raised in the replies of Local Governments to the reference made in this Department's letter No. 866, dated 6th October 1917, were so important and the opinions expressed exhibited so much variety, that it was felt that some time must elapse before a definite decision was possible. Accordingly, the Secretary of State was addressed with a view to the introduction of an ad interim scheme which should give substantial relief to members of the Indian Educational Service. It had been intended to include in these proposals a similar scheme for members of the Provincial Educational Services. But it was found that the organization of those services, differing as it does in different provinces, did not readily lend itself to temporary treatment along uniform lines. The Government of India had already given some relief to this service (as well as to the Indian Educational Service) by means of allowances; and the recent promotion of members of the Provincial to the Indian Educational Service has improved the conditions of the former in some of the provinces. It is hoped that final orders will issue at an early date regarding the Provincial Services.

2. The Secretary of State has sanctioned the proposals of the Government of India regarding the Indian Educational Service. These proposals are as follows :—

(i) Annual increments of Rs. 50 a month will be continued for fifteen instead of for ten years; and the ordinary maximum pay of the service will accordingly be Rs. 1,250 instead of Rs. 1,000. This change will take immediate effect in the case of existing officers with more than ten years' service; that is to say, an officer who has attained the present maximum of Rs. 1,000 will at once obtain the benefit of as many increments of Rs. 50 (up to a maximum of five increments) as he has completed years of service in excess of ten. An officer in his twelfth year of service will at once draw Rs. 1,050; an officer in his thirteenth year will draw Rs. 1,100; an officer in his fourteenth year Rs. 1,150, and so on.

(ii) All allowances hitherto given, including the alleviatory allowances granted in this Department's letter No. 281, dated the 11th February 1915, will be continued, subject to the maximum prescribed in (iii).

(iii) The maximum salary attainable will be Rs. 1,750, unless a larger salary has already been attained by any officer under previous conditions.

(iv) The concession under (i) will take effect from the 23rd May 1919. Thereafter an officer who has not as yet attained the maximum pay of Rs. 1,250 will draw his next increment on the date on which it would be due in accordance with his entry into service; i.e., an officer who had entered service on the 15th November 1905 will draw Rs. 1,150 with effect from the 23rd May 1919, and Rs. 1,200 with effect from the 16th November 1919.

3. It is requested that these arrangements may be brought into effect at once and that any exceptional cases which appear to require special treatment be brought to the notice of the Government of India without holding up the cases of others.

4. The Government of India desire it to be understood that the scheme described above is of an ad interim order. They realize that it will not improve the conditions of all members of the service. It is hoped that there will be but little delay in publishing the permanent and final arrangements which may be decided upon as the outcome of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission and subsequent correspondence.

Letter—from the Accountant-General, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.

Dated—the 5th July 1919.

No.—G.A. 75-6654.

I have the honour to inquire when formal orders of Government will be issued giving effect to the increased rate of pay to members of the Indian Educational Service sanctioned by the Secretary of State.

Early orders are requested as officers are urging for the issue of pay slips.

Order—No. 874, Home (Education), dated 15th July 1919.

The letter from the Government of India read above is communicated to the Director of Public Instruction and to the Accountant-General.

2. The annexed list shows the salary and allowances which the officers of the Indian Educational Service in this Presidency who are immediately affected by the reorganization will be allowed to draw as an ad interim measure from the 23rd May 1919. In the case of officers now on long leave, the provisions of article 60 of the Civil Service Regulations will apply.

3. The Director of Public Instruction is requested to submit the necessary reappropriation statement to meet the extra expenditure in the current year.

OFFICE OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

The first fourteen items of the statement attached up to Mr. Kershaw have been checked and are correct subject to the following remarks. The remaining officers are not immediately benefited by the new orders and their increments will be regulated by this office as they fall due, taking also the new orders into consideration as they come under their operation:—

Item 5—Mr. Fyson.—He is entitled to his next increment of Rs. 1,250 only from the 10th July 1919 and not from 3rd July 1919 as given in the statement as the period of leave without allowances from the 7th to 12th November 1908 does not count for increments.

Item 8—Mr. R. G. Grieve.—His next increment is due from the 30th October 1919 and not from 31st October 1919 as given in the statement.

Item 9—Mr. W. E. Smith.—Mr. W. E. Smith is entitled to a salary of Rs. 950 only till 3rd January 1920 as he was granted his increment of Rs. 750 only from 4th January 1915, the date of examination of the compulsory test in Hindustani, which he passed.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 815 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notice and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
