Extracts of Resolutions passed at the Second Trichinopoly District Non-Brahmin Conference, held at Trichinopoly on Sunday the 22nd June 1919.

Submitted to H.M. for perusal and for orders regarding the same for submission to the Government.

That the Tamil language having as it does a most ancient, rich, high finished and varied literature should be recognised by the Madras University and by the Civil Service Commissioners as a Classical language on the same footing as Persian, Arabic and Sanskrit.

✓ That this Conference appeals to Government (i) to take early steps for the granting of house sites for the poor, homeless, agricultural labourers of this district, (ii) to prevent the Municipal Council promptly from evicting the poor and depressed classes of this town from their homesteads under pretext of insanitation etc (iii) to enforce the admission of boys and girls of all castes to every school and institution receiving aid from Government and to strictly enforce the rule admitting Panchamas and Pallas freely and fully into every court and public office.

*Orders re the admission of Panchamas to schools
under public management
have already issued - K.D.
