Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. R. LITTLEHAILES, M.A., Acting Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.

Dated—the 11th July 1919.

No.—Ref. on C. 5410.

In G.O. No. 736, Educational, dated 5th July 1916, Government approved the proposals of the late Director Sir Henry Stone for the constitution of the European School Examinations Board altering it to two officials and five non-officials instead of four officials and three non-officials, which was the previous constitution. They also permitted the members of the Board to be examiners when necessary. Mr. Melville, the Inspector of European and Training Schools, who has recently rejoined duty from long leave, states that he has received various complaints as to the working of the Board of recent years, and suggests a reversion to the original constitution of the Board, viz., four officials and three non-officials. The complaints, he reports, are to the effect that schools represented on the Board are unduly successful in the examinations. He says, however, that there is no real ground for the insinuation which, in his opinion, is due to the keen competition between schools. He reports further that complaints have also been made of the permission accorded for members of the Board to be examiners and states that he is not in favour of this practice. I am inclined to agree with him, and I have the honour accordingly to request sanction for the reconstitution of the Board according to the original arrangement, viz., four officials and three non-officials and for the withdrawal of the permission accorded to members to be examiners.

2. The favour of very early orders is requested.

Order—No. 926, Home (Education), dated 28th July 1919.

In modification of G.O. No. 736, Educational, dated 5th July 1916, the Government resolve to restore the original constitution of the European School Examination Board, viz., four officials and three non-officials, and to direct that no member of the Board shall be an examiner.

HOME (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

In G.O. No. 269, Educational, dated the 3rd May 1909, the Government for the first time constituted the European School Examination Board. The Board consisted of four officials and three non-officials and the members of the Board were debarred from being examiners for the reasons given in Sir George Forbes' note on page 11 of the notes to that Government Order. In 1916 the constitution of the Board was altered in accordance with the Director of Public Instruction's recommendation to increase the number of non-officials from three to five and at the same time to reduce the number of officials from four to two (G.O. No. 736, Educational, dated 5th July 1916). The condition debarring the members from being examiners was also withdrawn.

2. It has since transpired that the non-officials have made light of their responsibilities as members of the Board and that the withdrawal of the restriction on the members' becoming examiners has also not proved satisfactory. The Director of Public Instruction therefore requests orders status quo ante.

3. A draft order is submitted for approval.

When was the last Board constituted? any term of appointment?

R. RAMACHANDRA RAO—18-7-19.

Submitted that unlike the Secondary School Leaving Certificate Board, the European School Examination Board is not formally appointed by the Government. All that the Government did in G.O. No. 269, Educational, dated 3rd May 1909, was to authorize the Director of Public Instruction to call a Board into existence, constituted as in paragraph 3 thereof. The Board was therefore constituted for the first time in 1909 and certain changes in its constitution were approved in G.O. No. 736, Educational, dated 5th July 1916. As stated above, Government do not appoint the personnel to the Board and they have not fixed any term of appointment. It is not known whether the Director has fixed any such period which would operate only in the case of non-official members, the official members being ex officio.

E.A.V.—19-7-19.

It is better to clear up the terms of appointment if any on which the Board is constituted. In other words whether how the acceptance of the Director of Public Instruction's proposals should be framed with reference to existing conditions.
