Ref. - General Order of the Government of India No. 1243, dated 21-9-1915.

I have the honour to make application for an advance of Rs. 450 (Four hundred and fifty only) in accordance with the terms of the above order to enable me to purchase a motor cycle and sidecar to assist me in my work of visiting and inspecting the European Schools in Madras. Up-to-date I have used a hired carriage to enable me to get about Madras but I find this means of locomotion very slow, very expensive and a cause of endless trouble. I should be glad if you would treat this matter as very urgent. I have already purchased the cycle and sidecar and have paid a deposit of Rs. 1000. I require the loan to --- enable me to complete the payment of the purchase money.

Harding, Lecturer in Domestic Economy and Needle work, for the purchase of a motor cycle with side car, I have the honour to state that Miss Harding holds only a temporary appointment, the existing sanction to which expires on 31-3-1920. The appointment has been in existence since November 1914 and its continued retention is being sanctioned year after year. The advance applied for requires the sanction of Government in the Financial Department, subject to the conditions mentioned in clause (j) of article 137 of the Home (Edn) 6. 973/B, from the J. P. S., R. C. 4009/19, 13.5.19.

As pointed out by the A. G.

Moss Harding holds only a temporary post sanction to which expires on 31st March.

1920. Voda No. 761 Ed. 2, d/ 12th June 1918

f. 326 Ed. 2, d/ 17th March 1919. The advance asked for is 'Subject to the usual conditions'

& so the intention is presumably to repay it in 2 1/2 equal instalments. i.e. to say, supposing that repayment commenced in June next, the advance will be wiped off completely only by ^{July} 1921. Whether Moss Harding's tenure of app't. will be extended beyond 31st March 1920 is a matter for the future. If the advance is to be sanctioned, it might perhaps be expedient to make it repayable before 31st March 1920, i.e. to say the first deduction will be from the pay bill for June ¹⁹¹⁹ and the whole amount would have been repaid by March 1920. Since the amount of advance is only Rs 450/-

Since Moss Harding draws a pay of Rs 350 p. M., it may not be particularly hard to ask her to repay at the rate of Rs 45 p. M. The J. P. S. may be consulted w/.
