The following additions may therefore be made to para (1) of Appendix XII on p123 of the pamphlet below, after the words "of Rs 240/-" in line 3 :-

"and those who pass Hindustani as their first or Second language within the period specified below will be granted a reward of Rs 80/- in each case".

In the list of G.O.s quoted at the top of the appendix, "+ G.O. No. 1144 W dt 27.9.18" may be added.

It is perhaps unnecessary to include the order in the abstract of the rules relating to Public service examinations as it seems to be hardly the proper place for it.

The correction slip dated 8-6-18 to para 25 of the pamphlet may be cancelled and the following inserted in its place.--

"Superior service - Exclusive of the Director of Industries there are now nine appointments carrying pay of more than Rs.250 per mensem. Three of these are -- permanent viz., those of the Dyeing Expert, the Oil Chemist and Soap Expert and the Superintendent of the mechanical engineering section of the Madura Technical Institute. Experts from the United Kingdom are usually recruited by the Secretary of State but the post of the Oil Chemist and Soap Expert is filled by an Indian -- graduate of the Madras University who ~~had been to Europe and~~ received further technical training in England. The post of -- Superintendent of the Madura Technical -- institute is included in the cadre of the sub engineers of the P.W.D. and the qualifications laid down for sub engineers are therefore necessary for future applicants for the post. The remaining six appointments are temporary viz. those of the -- Leather Expert, Weaving Expert, Inspector of Industrial Schools, the Assiatnt -- Director, the Assistant Leather Expert and the Lecturer, Madras Trades school.

The Assistant Director's post is usually filled by selection from the P.W.D. cadre. The Assistant Leather Expert's appointment is purely temporary and was necessitated by the Leather Expert's absence on military duty. No specific qualifications are prescribed for the other appointments. They are required to possess the technical qualifications necessary for the respective posts.

2. The question of delegating powers of exemption in regard to educational and special test qualifications to the Chief Conservator of Forests has been raised by the Board of Revenue and the file is now in the Home (Education) department. Submitted that that -- department may be requested to incorporate the orders to be passed on that case in the proposed correction slip.

3. The pamphlet does not at present contain any rules regarding the Fisheries and Co-operative departments. For orders whether the heads of departments concerned may be asked to submit suitable paragraphs for insertion in the pamphlet.

Deputy Collectors.

Para.45 - first sub-para. (1) In the list of the tests which are to be passed before appointment as a deputy collector given on p.24 of the pamphlet put up, the word 'Higher' against items (1) and (2) may be deleted as there is now only a single test in each of the examinations. Vide G.Os. 1965 Rev., dated 18th May 1918 and 1337 Home (Judl.), dated 5th June 1918.

(2) In G.O.1912 Rev., dated 15th May 1918 the Account test has been removed from among the tests prescribed as a preliminary qualification for the post of a deputy collector. But G.O.3553 Rev., dated 30th October 1918 prescribes a departmental account test for dy. collrs. The following may be inserted at the end of sub-para.1 of para.45.

"Every deputy collector who has not passed the special account test, and is not directly -- appointed to the Provincial Civil Service (and so liable to pass the standard examinations prescribed for the Indian Civil Service) shall, on the conclusion of his training in treasury work be subjected to a written examination in the subjects prescribed for the account test. No officer will be certified as fit to hold independent charge of a district -- treasury unless he passes this examination. Officers who fail to pass the examination at the end of their training in treasury work will be liable to be debarred from grade promotion until they pass it. Such officers will be re-examined at the end of every six months until they pass the examination."

delete existing item (4) + (5) of correction slip at p. 24 of the pamphlet

(3) Items (5) and (6) may be re-numbered as items (3) and (4).

2. Para.45 - second sub-para. For "(1) to (5)" in the last line, "(1) to (3)" may be substituted.

3. Para.45 - third and fourth sub-paras. With reference to G.O.2928 Rev., dated 10th August 1918 passing orders on the survey and settlement - training of junior civilians and deputy collectors the following may be substituted for the last two sub-paragraphs of paragraph 45.

"Officers who have risen to the grade of deputy collector from the subordinate grades of the land revenue department need not undergo the training in survey and land records maintenance and in special staff work and settlement. This training will be restricted to junior civilians and to deputy collectors appointed direct. A pass in the Division D of the High Standard examination shall be obligatory only for junior civilians and deputy collectors appointed direct but optional for other deputy collectors. Officers will be given two chances to pass this examination, and those who pass in one of the two subjects will not be examined again in that subject. Officers who fail after two chances are liable to be removed from the appointment of deputy collector."

4. In view of the fact that direct recruitment to the deputy collectors' grade has been suspended pending orders on the recommendations of the Public Services Commission it is submitted that the following footnote may be inserted at the end of paras.46-52:--

"46-52 Note.— The scheme of direct recruitment to the Provincial Civil Service dealt with in these paras is in abeyance at present."

Conversant with [illegible] is no doubt useful for Sub-Registrars to possess a good working knowledge of at least two vernaculars, it appears somewhat invidious to introduce a distinction between those who have passed the Criminal Jud! Test and those who have not in making Selections for the post of Sub-Registrar, esp. when the Criminal Judicial Test has been abolished as a qualifying test in the case of Sub-Registrars. It is therefore for consideration whether the words "have passed the Criminal Jud! Test and" occurring in para 134(b) of the pamphlet may be deleted. The draft alteration in the pamphlet, marked 'A' at p. 11 of the list of corrections is subject to approval.

2. But I see that a large number of corrections have been made since the 31st March. Please draft a similar G.O for all such sanctioned corrections. If numerous, I shall sanction an additional G.O. for the broken part of a year. Even otherwise, the draft will come in useful for next year's G.O.

R.R.R. 15-8-19.

With reference to para 2 of the Secretary's note extracted above, it is respectfully submitted that it has been the practice hitherto to issue the list of corrections only once a year in accordance with the orders in G.O.No.673 Home (Education) dated 22-5-17. The list, that has now been sent to the Press, accordingly embodies addenda and corrigenda consequential on the orders that have issued upto the 31st March 1919. It contains, however, a few additions and corrections sanctioned after that date which the Revenue department specially wanted to be incorporated in the list, viz., those relating to the Salt Abkari and Customs tests and to the examination in vernaculars prescribed for officers of the Indian Civil Veterinary departments - C.F. G.Os.Nos. 917 Rev. dated 25-4-19, 994 Rev dated 1-5-19 and 1490 Rev. dated 19-6-19. Similar alterations relating to other departments of the Secretariat have not been so embodied in the list, as some of them are to be embodied in the P.S. & Special Test Notifns which have already been published in the Gazette upto the 31st March 1919, while in another case the file was still under disposal. If it is considered necessary to compile a complete list of of corrections sanctioned after the 31st March 191[illegible], a reference will have to be made to the departments of the Secretariat for a fresh list of addenda and corrigenda up to a certain date, say, 30th August [illegible]. This practice will however supersede the previous decision to publish the list only once a year-vide G.O.No.673 Home (Education) dated 23-5-17 - and will also involve ~~further~~ inter-departmental references.

2 It does not seem desirable to issue a G.O embodying only those additions and corrections after the 31st March 1919, which have been adverted to by ~~the~~ certain departments of the Secretariat in the notes with G.O.No.999 Home (Education) dated 15-8-19, as ~~the~~ these are not exhaustive. Orders are solicited.

We may keep the collections ready for next issue. A further Circular and reference will involve delay and bring us near the time for next publication.

I simply wanted to see a copy of subsequent corrections to judge if the usual rule of publication once a year need be departed from.

Can you just indicate, if information available in the Edel Sects, what the complete one? a list of [illegible] concerned will do. If they are not many, I shall not depart from the usual practice
