I. C.D. Srinivasa Acharya 36 years
Lower Secondary Examination I Class and Typewriting (Intermediate Grade).

II. G. Samia Pillai 36 years
Typewriting (Intermediate Grade)

At present in one of the temporary appointments sanctioned in G.O.No.2308, Home (Judicial) dated the 12th October 1918 and to be confirmed when any vacancy arises in "the C.I.D. office".

Pay Rs.20-80 with duty allowance of Rs.5

School Final Examination.

Permanent.

Permanent.

First application
These clerks were exempted from the provisions of Article I of the Public Service Notification by me for one year till 5th December 1918 for employment in the Bureau in one of the appointments sanctioned in G.O.No.2573, Home (Judl.) dd.6-12-1917

These clerks are permanent Typists in the C.I.D. office and in the office of the Superintendent, Government Ry.Police, Trichinopoly, on Rs.35 and 33 respectively. Recommended as exceptional cases. They are reported to be as good as passed men and to have given entire satisfaction in the clerical appointments in the Finger Print Bureau. They have over 13 years' and 10 years' service respectively. The Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Railways and C.I.D., strongly recommends their permanent exemption and I support the proposal.

The application is made solely in the interest of the Public Service.

Name, age and educational qualifications of the unpassed candidates for whose exemption sanction is sought.

The post in which it is proposed to employ him and the nature of the appointment, i.e., whether acting or sub. pro tem. or temporary.

The sanctioned pay of the post and the pay proposed to be given to the unpassed candidate.

The examination from which exemption is sought.

The period for which the appointment is expected to last.

The period for which sanction is now sought (with date of commencement and date of termination).

Is this a first application or one for a renewal of a previous sanction? If for renewal, quote the previous order granting sanction and state for how long the candidate has already been exempted.

What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate and with what result?

Recommendation of the head of the department.

Remarks.

Subject: - Exemption from examination rules

The J. G. proposes to ~~continue the temporary employment of these clerks~~ ^{continue the temporary} ~~employment of these clerks~~ ^{employment of these clerks} in the Fingerprint Bureau and ~~to confirm them in vacancies~~ ^{to confirm them in vacancies} in the C.I. D. Office.

They are both permanent typists on pay exceeding Rs 30/- In view of the fact that they are both reported to have given entire satisfaction in their clerical appointments, the permanent exemption applied for may perhaps be sanctioned, fixing the maximum limit of pay at Rs 80/-, ~~being reported~~ ^{being reported} The Fingerprint Bureau and the C.I. D. require special aptitude and experience.

2. A draft order is submitted for approval. It may issue after acceptance by 'judicial' and 'public'.

There was another ^{Shinley} case also from the same office a few days ago.

notes at pp 1-2 therein. For orders whether the draft may be accepted in quot. The S. J. R. Rys and C. J. D. strongly recommends the exemption. (vide ~~the~~ Col. 9 of the application - et).

If approved the Case may be passed on to Public us.

The linked case is not that of a clerk ~~is~~ trained in finger print work?
 LWS
 81218.

Subd no. The linked case is that of a typist in the office of the S. G. of Police where there is no finger print work. This case was linked with the other case with reference ~~to the other case with reference~~ to the Registrar's remark on the previous page. In both the cases the question of permanent exemption of typists from Art. 1 of the Public Service Notifn. is involved.

For orders.
 12.12.18.

I am sorry again I cannot pass these exemptions. When Govt sanction new appointments on within maximum as high as Rs 80, their intention is evidently not to give two posts out of five to typists who have not specially qualified for the Superior Service. The expenditure required or acquired in these cases cannot be very much.
