T. Sloan, Esquire,

Under Secretary to the Government of India,

The Chief Secretary to the Government of
M a d r a s.

Home Department,
(Public);

Simla, the 11th November 1918.

Sir,

I am directed to forward a copy of the question asked by the Hon'ble Mr. V.J. Patel and the answer given to it in the Imperial Legislative Council held on the 5th September 1918, regarding a list of Journals and Magazines proscribed from registered libraries and to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council - the Government of India may be informed whether a system of registered libraries obtains in the Madras Presidency and if so, they may be furnished with the information required by Mr. Patel.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for Under Secretary to the Government of India.

28

By the Hon'ble Mr. V. J. Patel :—

- (a) Will Government be pleased to place on the table a list of magazines and journals proscribed from Registered libraries with dates from which such prohibition came into force?
- (b) How many of these journals have since become extinct? Are Government aware that their stoppage is due more or less to the step taken by the Government?
