No. 9130/18

Station Madras, Dated the 12-12-1918

From (Name) The Honourable Mr. H. S. Duncan, M.A.

(Designation) Ig. Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

Through the Accountant - General, Madras.

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the grant with effect from 1st October 1918 to Miss Glyn Barlow sub protem additional assistant, Government Secondary and Training School for Mistresses, Triplicane, of a remunerative personal allowance of Rs. 31/- per mensem under para (2) of the resolution of the Government of India, Finance Department, No. 358 E.A dated 31st August 1912 (printed in appendix B to the Madras Supplement to the Civil Service Regulations).

Having entered service on 1st August 1916 she has been holding the present appointment sub protem from 1st January 1917 and is now in receipt of a salary of Rs. 155 per ~~ensem~~ ^{per} mensem in a grade of Rs. 150-5-175. She has passed the Oxford Senior Local, knows Latin, French and Italian and has also passed the Educational compulsory test in Hindustani. The Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Central Circle in recommending the grant to Miss Glyn Barlow of an increased salary or personal allowance reports that she is a born teacher and has proved to be most successful in the teaching of English to the three highest forms and that it is highly necessary to retain her in the interests of the school, she is an European and as Trivlicane is far from the European residential quarters of Madras she has necessarily to keep a conveyance to get to the school.

2 This is a personal circumstance
It is further reported that owing to the retirement from 1st October 1918 of Mr. Glyn Barlow, her father, from the editorship of the Madras Times, Miss. ~~Glyn~~ Barlow is no longer able to live on her present pay and that it is necessary that she should be freed from all financial worry and enabled to devote her undivided attention and energy to the school work. I understand also that Mr. Stone ~~assured~~ ^{assured} Mrs. Drysdale that he would consider favourably any claim from Miss Glyn Barlow for a personal allowance.

3 In view of the circumstances set forth above Miss. Barlow case seems to me to be deserving of consideration and I beg accordingly to recommend that a personal allowance of Rs. 31/- per mensem which is 20 per cent of Rs. 155, her present salary, be granted to her to supplement that salary, which is quite inadequate for an European lady of her attainments and status and that the allowance shall not be subjected to the reduction contemplated in article 61 of the Civil Service Regulations but shall be continued to her so long as she holds the post on Rs. 150-5-175 irrespective of the increments in that scale as they may accrue from time to time.

4. 4 Miss Barlow holds her post sub protem at present and it is intended to confirm her in it shortly.

4. 5 The charge during the current year can be met from the probable savings under salaries under 22 E Education Government Schools-Special-Training Schools for Mistresses- and I request that the necessary provision for the purpose may be included in the Budget Estimate for next year.

I have the honour to be,

Sir.

Your most obedient servant.

2. There is no audit objection to the proposal of the Director of Public Instruction being sanctioned by Government in the Financial Department, if they consider that the case falls under sub-para III, under para (2) of the Resolution of the Government of India, Finance Department, No. 358 E.A., dated 31st August 1912.

3. Necessary provision will be included in the Budget estimates for 1919-20 on receipt of orders of Government in the Financial Department to that effect.

Subject: - Payment of a personal allowance to Miss Glyn Barlow, S.P.T. Assistant in the Post: Sec: & Training School for mistresses, Triflicance.

Para III (2) at p. 5
 of Rs. 600 July VI
 27-9-12

The D. of D. Resolution quoted by the D.P.D. no doubt permits the grant, under certain conditions, of a semi-tentative personal allowance to an officer "for the exercise of exceptional qualifications which are specially valuable in the discharge of their duties and are not ordinarily expected of incumbents of the appointments."
 This is the ~~general~~ rule and it is now sought to apply it to the benefit of Miss Glyn Barlow, additional act:
 in the Post: Secondary and Training School for mistresses. The only argument in the letter that deserves some consideration is the report of the inspectress that "She (Miss Barlow) is a born teacher and has proved to be most successful in the teaching of English to the three highest forms" ~~and is a most successful teacher~~

'A' at p. 2, c. 4

~~the teacher is an efficient person~~
~~and has been for a long period~~
~~of time~~
~~and has been for a long period~~
~~of time~~
It is only a little over two years since Miss Barlow joined the Dept: and she ought naturally to look forward to her confirmation first and then to chances of usual promotion. ~~There~~ Supposing that her starting pay is not altogether commensurate with her attainments and capacity, ~~it might be~~ ^{might be} ~~possible to~~ ^{have tried to} ~~provide~~ ^{provide} her with an app: on a higher salary in the Queen Mary's College for Women at elsewhere, instead of leaving forward a proposal which entails needless additional expenditures. Attention is in this connection solicited to G.O. No. 599 Ed:; of 7th May 1918 in which Govt: declined to grant personal allowances to Miss ~~Barlow~~ ^{Chatterton} and Miss Lazarus. It does not appear that the present is in any way a harder case. For orders whether the application may be rejected.

Moreover if the personal allowance applied for is sanctioned her total emoluments will exceed the pay of the headmistress who will then apply for a similar allowance.

22.12.18

25.12.18

Miss Barlow's circumstances have been altered somewhat for the worse by her father's retirement from the Editorship of the "Madras Times", but there is almost nothing ^{else} to be said for the present claim. Her general ^{literary} attainments are probably high but her qualification is only the Oxford Senior Local Exam. I am afraid the claim cannot be entertained.
