No. 37/B, from Major General Cross Barral,
 No. 342/S - A.I.s del 6.1.19.

The Local Govt: have not till now published of their own motion any notification in appreciation of the services rendered by individuals in connection with the war. The Govt: of India have however issued a few such notifications and these have been re-published in the Fort St. George Gazette. If the service now brought to notice can with propriety be held to have a pertinent bearing on the war, the question has to be considered whether this Govt: should themselves issue the suggested notification and send up the names of the ladies mentioned to the G. of I. ~~in the~~

2 It may also be mentioned that the Local Govt: have in the past placed on record their appreciation of services rendered ^{on certain occasions} by official and non-official gentlemen in the interests of the public - Vide para 1 of G.O. No. 3038 Indb.; dt/ 18th Dec: 1916, in connection with floods in Karnataka, para 2 of G.O. No. 832 M.; dt/ 22nd May

I'm afraid it is a severe stretch to call this war service — unless one so call it — it is difficult to see how it can be recognised. After all people very often do this sort of thing & get no recognition — except none. I don't want to appear to belittle but I hardly think it's a case for special mention.

It does seem far-fetched.

NOTES.

I agree in the G.O.C.'s appreciation of the help given by these ladies and they should be thanked through the agency of the Committee of the School, to whom such acknowledgment might be suggested.

It is unnecessary to call this help war work, for it is to be hoped that in the event of a similar epidemic in peace time it would be equally available.
