To

His Excellency the Right
Honorable Baron Pentland of Lytton, P.C., J. E.,
Governor of Madras.

The honorable representation of G. K. Duggirala sometime Lecturer, Government Training College, Rajahmundry, most respectfully sheweth as follows:

My Lord,

His victory week has been despoising deep delight all round, and in my turn, has inspired me with hope and faith to approach your Lordship with a prayer for reinstatement in the service.

This is my only apology for presenting my case for your Lordship's magnanimous attention.

In July 1917, I was appointed to the Training College, Rajahmundry, as a Subprotem Lecturer in History and in March 1918, the Director of Public Instruction in his R.O. No 8 of 1918 dated 13th March '18, in obedience to G.O. No 317 Home (Education) dated 8th March 1918, was pleased to inform me that my services in the college will not be required after the last day of the vacation.

The suddenness and the severe brevity of the order showed that the reasons which prompted it must have been serious, and I approached my principal Mr. Ross, and the Director of public instruction Mr. Stone, for enlightenment. Both of them alleged, with varying emphasis, that my presiding over the Andhra students' conference at Masulipatam, and my 'deliberate advocacy of impracticability' were responsible for my fate. I explained to them at length how the former was at worst an indiscretion, and the latter the result of a misunderstanding, and requested them to help me out of the situation. They advised me that the matter rested entirely with the Government, that they could do nothing in the matter, and that it is not of much use my trying for reinstatement.

Being absolutely devoid of any other means of living, and this circumstance vetoing all chances of obtaining an appointment in any decently paying College, I joined the national college here at Masulipatam which had, I am grateful to note, ^{even} without any necessity of my services, generously offered to entertain me. I would, if I get a chance, go elsewhere, and the present auspicious time of victory encourages me to hope that the Supreme Magnanimous mood of the Government can easily forgive a humble individual's faults, which are after all, I beg to submit, the result of nothing but mere inexperience and perhaps also a trifle too much enthusiasm.

I profoundly apologise for any such faults and can assure your Lordship that at least the experience I have now gained can surely prevent their repetition in the future.

I pray for reinstatement and am ready to go even into the Inspectorate if so directed.

If your Lordship finds — and I earnestly hope and pray this won't be the case — that the etiquette of the educational service ^{will be} seriously compromised by my admission, I pray that I may be taken into any other branch of the public service. And if, to my utter misfortune, even this is found to be impossible, I earnestly pray that your Lordship be pleased to grant me exemption from attendance in the College and permission to appear privately for the first grade pleadership examination. This ~~would~~ at least ^{would} give me a lease of decent life. I haven't the means even for staying in Madras to study for this pleadership examination. I further beg to submit that the Degree of M. A with Honors in Economics & political Philosophy which I have taken in the Edinburgh University has afforded me thorough acquaintance with legal subjects, as, for instance, Jurisprudence, public International Law, Constitutional Law and Roman Law. The first two constituted a subject for the Degree, and the last two were included in political Philosophy. I therefore, do not actually need instruction in the class in legal subjects.

I humbly pray your Lordship be pleased to grant either of these three concessions. I look forward for your Lordship's favorable decision with happy anticipation.

I beg to remain,
My Lord,

Your most humble & obedient servant
G. K. Duggirala

ment No. 2934 A-1, dated 11th December 1918, I have the honour to opinion of him and for recommending his reinstatement.

As regards the question of his being admitted into
