Resolutions passed at the 35th session of

The Salva Sathantha Conference, Tuticorin
29th and 30th December 1918.

Resolution

Dated 30th December 1918.

This conference is emphatically of opinion that the Tamil Language, with a time honoured alphabet consisting of easy and natural articulate sound and with an ancient -- glorious and varied literature satisfies all the requisites of a classical language and hence it urges strongly that the Madras University should recognise it as a classical language Resolution 11.

The conference further begs to state that Tamil Literature should be divided into

- (1) Agaporul group (அகப்பொருள்)
- (2) Puraporul group (புறப்பொருள்)
- (3) Siddhantha Philosophy

and suitable titles conferred on candidates specialising in each of the mentioned groups.
