Education Secretary to the Government of Madras
Sir,

I beg to state, that I sent a memorial under the signatures of the citizens of Bhimavaram and Narsapur Divisions, to His Excellency the Governor of Madras on 14-7-1918, praying for the location of a Government Trade College at Narsapur, for the convenience of the five Delta Talukhs, Narsapur, Bhimavaram, Tanuku, Achalapuram and Razole, in the Godavari and Kistna Districts and received a reply from the Private Secretary to His Excellency in no 207-P dated 19-7-18, to the effect that it will be considered by the Government in the Home (Education) Department. Ever since the despatch of the above memorial, the need for a Government Trade College at Narsapur, was recognised and supported, by such public bodies as the Kistna District Association, Godavari District Association and by responsible officers, like the Revenue Divisional Officer, Narsapur, Collector of Kistna and the Inspector of Schools, Guntur, all of whom submitted our memorial copies, with ✓ their opinions to Government.

Though six or seven months have elapsed we have not yet received a reply from the Government. So, I request you to consider this subject at an early date and place it for the discussion of the Council at its next Budget meeting and oblige.

Hoping to be favoured with an early reply.

I beg to remain

Sir

Your most obedient servant
