Through the Accountant-General, M a d r a s

Sir,

I have the honour to report that Miss M.G. Alexander, acting additional lecturer, Queen Mary's College for Women, Madras has under instructions from Mr. Stone been delivering a course of lectures in the 'Literature of the Eighteenth Century' to the fifth year Honours Class students in the Presidency College, since 2nd August 1918 and that she hopes to finish the course this month just before the college closes for the Christmas vacation. I gather that Miss Alexander was told by Mr. Stone to hold herself in readiness to begin the lectures in July 1918 and made to understand that an allowance of Rs. 100 per mensem would be paid to her from that month for the extra work. Owing to the recasting of the timetable at the Presidency College she could not commence her lectures before 2nd August 1918 but as she had to make her preparation for the lectures early in July she has applied for payment of the additional salary of Rs. 100 per mensem from July 1918.

The Principal, Presidency College, states that the "Literature of the Eighteenth Century" on which Miss Alexander lectures is the special subject taken by the Honours students and that it was thought that an additional course of lectures would be beneficial to them. In these circumstances I beg to recommend that sanction be accorded to the payment to her of an allowance at the rate of Rs. 100 per mensem from 1st July to 31st December 1918, both days inclusive.

2. The charge can be met from the probable savings under salaries under 22 C Education-Government Colleges, General in the current year's budget.

I have the honour to be,

The Director of Public Instruction recommends the payment of an allowance of Rs 100 p.m. for 6 months from July 1918 to Miss Alexander, ag. addl. lecturer, Queen Mary's College for Women (Rs 300) for delivering a course of lectures on the "Literature of the Eighteenth Century" to the Honourable Students of the Pres. College. It is stated that Mr. Stone informed Miss Alexander that an allowance of Rs 100 p.m. would be paid to her for this work. The allowance proposed, Rs 100, seems out of proportion to the pay (Rs 300) drawn by Miss Alexander, and the late D.P.'s action in giving an assurance as to the payment of an allowance to Miss Alexander, especially at such a high rate, without the knowledge and sanction of Govt. was irregular.

Attention is invited to the 18th notes referred to above in which he has stated that these lectures would be outside the scope of ~~extension~~ Miss Alexander's duties. So some remuneration should be paid her, but as pointed out by ~~the~~ (Edw) note above, the proposed amount is a little disproportionate to her pay. As however the late D. S. I. has, it is uponed, given a sort of assurance that Miss Alexander would be paid $100 per. there seems to be no help for it now.
2. ~~But~~ It is however settled that ^{as} Miss

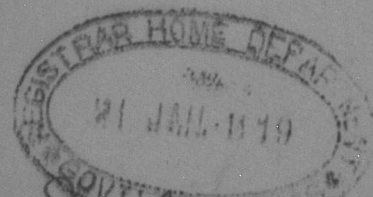

NOTES.

Alexander ^(to five) her lectures only on 2.8.18 - there is no sufficient justification for the grant of the allowance from 1.7.18, the reason assigned for this is that she had to make her preparation for lectures in early July and so she applies for it from July '18.
It would seem sufficient to grant her the allowance from 2.8.18 for the period she actually was delivering the lectures. For orders.

Such fees are for work actually done and as Miss Alexander's lectures really covered a period of only ~~five~~ five months the proposed honorarium should not apparently exceed Rs 500

It looks very much as if the 100/- per month was arrived at (the DPL by adding on to her sanctioned pay (300) the amount that was required to bring it up to the pay (400) which he proposed should be given her. This office has no material for judging the value of the extra services performed -

In the other point, date from which payment is to commence we cannot possibly say when Miss Alexander began to prepare lectures in the interval of the XVIIIth Census. She probably had material to hand from lectures she had attended - so the allowance would ordinarily run from the date on which the lectures commenced may be granted for Rs. 500 five months 8.20.18 .. 17.1.19
