Copy of a letter no.153 dated the 17th January 1919, from the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education (Education)

.....

I am directed to refer to the correspondence with the letter from the Government of India no.830, dated the 27th September 1917, permitting the holding in March 1918 of the First Diploma Examination in Accountancy for the Bombay Presidency.

2. I am now to say that the second Diploma Examination in Accountancy is to be held in March 1919 and that numerous enquiries have been received from graduates and holders of Auditors' certificates in other Provinces as to whether they will be allowed to appear at the examination in question. Under regulation 4 of the regulations forwarded with Mr. Monie's letter no.95, dated the 11th January 1916, graduates of British and Indian Universities are permitted to sit for the Diploma examination without any proof of previous theoretical or practical training in accounts, while under regulation 6 holders of Auditors' certificates are eligible for admission to the examination without any further proof of training in accounts. The Accountancy Diploma Board, Bombay, have therefore requested that they may be authorised to accept applications for the examination to be held in March next from such candidates even though they are residents of other provinces. The Board add that these candidates will not be eligible for the final Diploma unless and until they satisfy all the other conditions in the regulations that may be finally sanctioned by the Government of India. In this connection I am to invite the attention of the Government of India to my letter no.2294, dated the 4th September 1918. The Government of Bombay is of opinion that, if the final notification is not issued to the effect that the examination is not likely to be received shortly, they may be advised to permit the Accountancy Diploma Board to receive applications from the candidates referred to above with a view to enable the latter to appear at the examination to be held in March 1919.
