From (Name) the Hon'ble Mr. H. S. Duncan, M. A.,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, HOME (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir,

(V)
 In their order Nos. 375 Educational, Mis., dated 4th April 1916 and 1527 Home (Education) dated 3rd December 1917, Government directed the Superintendent, Government Press, to arrange for the supply to the Law College, Madras, of five copies each of all the Indian Law Reports, Madras Series. It has now been represented to me that there is some misapprehension about the interpretation of these G.O.s. for while the Principal of the Law College, Madras and the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras, whom I have consulted on the matter, are of opinion that five sets of the complete series of the Indian Law Reports, Bombay, Madras, Calcutta and Allahabad should be supplied to the institution according to these orders, Government have informed me in their Telephonic Message dated 11th December 1918 that the supply in the two G.O.'s is restricted to the Indian Law Reports, Madras Series. Mr. Davies states that five sets of the Indian Law Reports, (viz., Bombay, Calcutta and Madras) are being regularly received in the Law College, while in the case of the Allahabad Series only one copy of the Indian Law Reports has been received since March 1918 from the Superintendent, Government Press, United Provinces, Allahabad. Mr. Davies represented this matter to the Superintendent and received a reply to the effect that the supply had been reduced to one copy under the orders of the Government of Madras.

2 The Principal further reports that, if the remaining copies of the Allahabad Series from March last are not supplied to his College, four out of five of the sets of the Law Reports Series will be incomplete. He also assures me that the supply of even five sets of each of the Indian Law Reports Series is inadequate to meet the continually growing demand for them in the College by Professors and students alike. It is understood that the Law College, Calcutta, is supplied with about 50 sets of the Indian Law Reports Series.

3 In these circumstances I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to arrange for the supply, at an early date, to the Law College, Madras, of four additional copies of the Indian Law Reports, Allahabad Series.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

G. V. Srinivasan

for Director of Public Instruction.

Six,

With reference to Memorandum No..2677 B-18-1, Home Education, dated 16th January 1919, the Superintendent, Government Press, submits that there are two distribution lists pertaining to this Presidency for the free supply of the Indian Law Reports maintained here:- one for the supply of the Complete Series and the other for the Madras Series only, and the name of the Principal, Law College was already borne on the former list for a single copy, and by a mistake owing to the use of the words "all the Indian Law Reports" the subsequent Government orders on the subject conveyed by Government were taken to mean the Complete Series; so, the number of copies against his name was raised to five, and other publishers were accordingly intimated for the supply of their respective reports to him as usual. The Principal, Law College also has made a similar misunderstanding of the order and complained to me in his No. 89 dated 31st August 1916 that the two copies of the Law Reports additional to the one already supplied sanctioned in G.O. No. 375, Educational, dated 4th April 1916 had not reached him from Bombay, etc., and asked me to address the other Superintendents on the subject.

p. 3 of

With reference to para 2 of the Memorandum, it is submitted that no correspondence on the matter with the Principal, Law College, is traceable in this office, and it seems from the last sentence in the letter of the Director of Public Instruction R.C. No. 9512/18 dated 20th December 1918 that the Principal had the information from the Superintendent, Government Press, Allahabad, who in other cases has stated that he has received instructions from Government direct.

The orders conveyed in

Indian Law Reports - Madras series. It is not understood how those orders ^{came} to be ~~by the Principal and the S.P.~~

2 It may be noted in this connection that in view of the necessity for economy in the use of paper, the Bengal Govt have proposed to reduce the number of copies of the Calcutta series at present supplied to the various officers. The T.P.D. has been asked in memo No 2632 B-1 Home (Ed^g) of 20. XII. 18 whether one copy of the above series will not suffice for the Law College. The number of copies of the Indian Law Reports - all series excepting Madras - that should in future be supplied to the Law College may, it is submitted, be determined on receipt of the T.P.D.'s reply.

There seems to be no use in making further reference on the point. The Principal considers that five sets are essential and the T.P.D. agrees. Five sets of other series are being received.
The answer to the reference in the linked file regarding the reduction of copies of the Calcutta

For the Reg?

With reference to the Secy's remarks on p. 2 ante it is submitted that it has been ascertained by telephone from the Law College that 5 copies each of the ^{principal} Indian Law Reports (viz Bombay, Calcutta and Madras series) are being regularly received there. But in the case of the Allahabad series, only one copy of it is reported to have been received since March 1918. The A.P.J. is unable to quote any authority as to how five copies of all the complete series of all the Indian Law Reports came to be supplied to the Law College and when the number of copies of the Allahabad series was ~~has been cut down from 5 to 1~~ raised to 5 or this latter supply curtailed to a single copy. Please

NOTES.

From para of the S.P.'s letter at pp 1-2 of it is observed that the S.P. has misinterpreted the order conveyed in G.O's nos 375 & 1527 Home (G.O.) of 4.4.16 and 3.11.17. These G.O's refer only to the Madras series. The S.P. may therefore be asked to explain the position. The memo submitted below is for approval.

For the Reg.
Please see the S.P.'s letter at pp 4-5 of which explains the circumstances which led to the supply to the Law College of five sets of the complete series of the Indian Law Reports. The Govt may, it is submitted, agree to continuing the above supply. Four additional sets of the reports of the Allahabad series may therefore be ordered to be supplied to the Law College.
