Police Office, South Malabar district.

tion held in that year.

First application.

The applicant is a Mappilla of the Walluvanad taluk, the fanatic zone in South Malabar district and belongs to a respectable family. He passed the Matriculation examination held in 1908 but failed in the re-examination held in the same year. He was entertained in the Police Department as a clerk on Rs.20 in September 1909. His work and character have been satisfactory and he is quite fit for more responsible work than he now does. He is as good as any passed clerk and the present recommendation is made in view of the backward state of his community and the pure mischance which led to his failure in the Matriculation examination of 1908.

Name, age and educational qualifications of the unpassed candidates, for whose exemption sanction is sought.

The post in which it is proposed to employ him and nature of the appointment, i.e., whether acting or sub-pro tem. or temporary.

The sanctioned
pay of the post
and the pay proposed to be given to the unpassed
candidate.

The examination from which exemption is sought.

The period for which the appointment
is expected to last.

which sanction is now sought (with dates of commencement and of termination).

Is this a first application or one for a renewal of a previous sanction? If for renewal, quote the previous order granting sanction and state for how long the candidate has already been exempted.

What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate and with what result?

Recommendation of the head of the department.

Remarks.

Application for exemption from the Examination rules of an unpassed candidate for employment in the District Police Office, South Malabar.

The Clerk on whose behalf the present application is made is Rs 20/- and the I.C. recommends his exemption for promotion in the clerical line in the Dh. Police Office. It is not usual to grant general exemptions of this sort. Submitted that the I.C. may be requested to specify the maximum limit of pay up to which the clerk may be allowed to rise.

Secy. Please see Secretary's note on the previous page. The candidate in the present case is a Mappika and from the judicial point of view there seems to be no objection to the exemption being given as recommended by the J. G. ~~Promotion in clerical line~~ referred to in Column 2 of the application is doubtless comprehensive, but the D.S.P., South Malabar, may be trusted to see that clerk Kunhali does not get his promotions as a matter of course.
