Office of HEADQUARTERS, 9th. Division,

Station BANGALORE, Date 23rd JANUARY, 1919.

FROM

THE GENERAL OFFICER COMMANDING,

9th (Secunderabad) Division.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

Home (Education) Department,

MADRAS.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that His Excellency the Governor spoke to me recently regarding a circulating library and allotting a sum of money for the purpose.

It was proposed that this should be run by Divisional Headquarters and not by the Y.M.C.A.

If His Excellency is still of the same opinion, will he kindly let me have any papers there may be on the proposal when I will go into them and submit a working plan for approval.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

John H. Cox Bonfleur

Major-General,

COMMANDING, 9th (Secunderabad) Division.

[Circulating Libraries.]

[C No 165B] From the G.O.B. 9th Dec 2nd No 02002/3/19

For the Reg^r.

There are no papers in this Sept about the establishment of any circulating libraries. In connection with the consideration of certain suggestions made at the All-India conference of librarians on the subject of the provision of facilities for reading and study by British soldiers in India, the G.O.B. 9th Dec 2nd, recommended that Y.M.C.A.'s and recognised institutes might be allowed to obtain books on loan at the request of soldiers at Bangalore, and Secunderabad ^{and} other large stations. He was informed that the above suggestion could not be adopted as, under the existing rules, no books or periodicals are lent out of the Commemorative Public Library. The G.O.B. does not apparently refer to the above mentioned proposal. It is submitted that the Public and Home (Mis) Septs may be

P.S. / u.o. No. 44-984.

The letter from the G.O.C. 9th Division No. 02002/3 Al. dated 23rd of January evidently refers to a proposal which was put up to His Excellency for the Madras War Fund to assist in a scheme for a Circulating Library for the troops in this Presidency. It has nothing to do with the subject-matter contained in this file and the letter should have been addressed to the Military Secretary and not to the Secretary to Government. I wrote to the G.O.C. 9th Division a few days ago explaining the whole position and he will have received my letter by this time.
