Delhi, the 22nd January 1919.

From

The Hon'ble Mr. H. Sharp, C.S.I., C.I.E.,
 Offg. Secretary to the Government of India,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
 Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

In this Department's Circular no. 771, dated the 12th of September 1917, it was suggested that, in view of the large number of vacancies at present existing in the Indian Educational Service, an attempt should be made to fill the whole or a greater part of these vacancies in accordance with the general policy recommended by the Commission on the Public Services through direct recruitment in India or promotion from the Provincial Educational Service.

2. Before receiving the replies of all the local Governments consulted, the Government of India in June last submitted to the Secretary of State proposals for filling a certain number of appointments on the above lines in accordance with the recommendations received from certain of the local Governments. They have now obtained the sanction of the Secretary of State to the appointment of the following officers to the Indian Educational Service, viz:-

1. Mr. H. C. Papworth (Madras)
2. Mr. K. Ramunni Menon (Madras)
3. Mr. W. B. Brierley (Madras)
4. Mr. M. M. Chose (Bengal)

(a) The European officers, Messrs. Papworth and Brierley, will on appointment receive the salary which they would receive under the existing rules.

(b) The remaining officers, who are in every case officers of the Provincial Educational Service, will, whether they are already acting in the Indian Educational Service or not, receive a pay equivalent to the amount of their present pay in the Provincial Educational Service, plus any allowances from Rs. 150 a month as may be drawn by certain of the officers under the sanction of the Secretary of State's telegram of 25th February 1913, plus a further sum of Rs. 100 per mensem. In the case of Messrs. Menon, M. M. Ghose, Mahalanabis, Das Gupta, Mallik, Chatterji and B. N. Das, who are appointed to the Indian Educational Service by reason of special qualifications obtained in Europe as well as of good work done in the Provincial Educational Service, the officer

5. Mr. S. C. Mahalanadik (Bengal)
6. Mr. J. N. Das Gupta (Bengal)
7. Dr. D. N. Mallick (Bengal)
8. Rai Bahadur Dr. P. Chatterji (Bengal)
9. Rai B. N. Das Bahadur (Bengal)
10. Sardar Sahib Bhai Hari Singh (Punjab)
11. Mr. Jadunath Sarkar (Bihar and Orissa)
12. Rai Bahadur Bhagwati Sahay (Bihar and Orissa)
13. Mr. R. P. Khosla (Bihar and Orissa)
14. Rao Bahadur Mahadeo Yashwanth Dole (Central Provinces)

These officers will accordingly be considered to have been substantively appointed to the Indian Educational Service with effect from the 7th November 1918, the date on which the orders of the Secretary of State were received in India.

3. The emoluments of the above officers will be regulated by the following rules:-

- (a) The European officers, Messrs. Papworth and Prierley, will on appointment receive the salary which they would receive under the existing rules.
- (b) The remaining officers, who are in every case officers of the Provincial Educational Service, will, whether they are already acting in the Indian Educational Service or not, receive a pay equivalent to the amount of their present pay in the Provincial Educational Service, plus any allowances from 1st April 1919 as may be drawn by certain of the officers under the sanction of the Secretary of State's telegram of 25th February 1913, plus a further sum of Rs. 100 per mensem. In the case of Messrs. Menon, M. N. Ghose, Mahalanadik, Das Gupta, Mallick, Chatterji and B. N. appointed will receive annual increments of Rs. 50 per mensem. In the case of Messrs. Hari Singh, Jadunath Sarkar, Bhagwati Sahay and M. Y. Dole, who have not been appointed by reason of such special qualifications, the officer will in each case receive an annual increment of Rs. 33-1/3 per mensem.

- (c) Mr. R. P. Khosla, who is a member of the Provincial Educational Service and acting in the Indian Educational Service and who was on his appointment to act in that service exempted from the rule in Article 63 of Civil Service Regulations, will draw pay as if he had been appointed in England.
- (d) The maximum limit of emolument will in all cases under (a), (b) and (c) above be Rs. 1000 per mensem. Should the ultimate decision on the question of pay be delayed, cases of hardship will be dealt with individually.

These orders must be considered to be of an intermediate character only and to have effect pending the introduction of substantive arrangements on the re-constitution of the service. They are intended to meet the immediate circumstances of the appointments now made and will not prejudice any conclusions which may be laid before the Secretary of State in connection with the general proposals of the Public Services Commission regarding the Indian Educational Service.

4. There are still a certain number of recommendations from local Governments for similar appointments which are in the hands of the Government of India, but pending the receipt of the orders of the Secretary of State on the suggestions placed before him in June last, the Government of India have retained these recommendations without forming definite conclusions regarding them. The recommendations are, however, being now carefully considered and such orders as may be passed on them by the Secretary of State will be communicated in due time to the local Governments concerned.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

W. D. D.
