Information and necessary action.

By order,

Copy of a letter No. R. and E. 2096/1920, dated the 25th November 1920, from the Registrar and Superintendent of Records, India Office, London, to the Secretary to the Govt. of India, Education Department.

I forward a copy of a letter from the Royal Asiatic Society stating the nature of those official publications which, alone, are desired for the Society's use. Certain of the standing distributions made in India include this Society, and I should be obliged if the limitation laid down in the letter could be noted by your Govt. and circulated to the various Provincial Governments.

Dear Sir,

I shall be much obliged if for the future you will kindly direct that no blue books or Govt. publications except those dealing with archaeology, history, philology, ethnography, religions and literature are to be sent to the Royal Asiatic Society. We only have a limited space for our library and publications other than those I have mentioned are outside the scope of our ~~interests~~ Society.

hoping that you will have no trouble in future.

Yours faithfully,
