Copy of an application from the Honorary Secretary of the Presidency College Sanskrit Association, dated 2nd December 1920.

I beg to state that the Pandit T.N. Marasinhacharya Memorial Committee has resolved to commemorate the Pandit's long connection with the college by instituting a prize for Sanskrit in his name, the conditions of which are to be as follows :-

Name of the Prize.

"The Pandit Marasinhacharya Sanskrit Prize, instituted by the pupils of Brahmasri T.N. Marasinhacharya Avargal, Sanskrit Pandit in this college, on the eve of his retirement, in order to commemorate his long connection with the college, and to encourage the study of Sanskrit.

Conditions.

"The Endowment consists of Rs. 700/-, invested in the Government 3½% paper, and the interest thereon is to provide for a prize to be awarded annually in the shape of books or of money as the Principal shall decide, to the student of the Fourth Year (Pass), Fourth Year (Honours) or Fifth Year (Honours) class, who produces the best essay in Sanskrit on a selected subject.

"If in any year there is no eligible candidate, the interest accruing from the fund will be allowed to accumulate and will be added when possible to the corpus of the fund".

I beg to request that you may be pleased to accept the same, and let us know at an early date, so that we may send you the Government 3½% papers, referred to.
