To the Minister of Education,
Madras.

Sir:--

I have the honor to inform you that the Methodist Episcopal Church has twenty-nine Primary Schools in the Tinnevelly Districts, in the Kollpatti and Sri Vaiguntam Taluks, but up to the present writing has no representation on the District Educational Committee.

May I therefore request that you be pleased to appoint Mr. M. Devasagayam of Vilat-thikulam as the representative of this Mission or the schools connected therewith, on that Committee? He has recently been appointed Manager of these schools.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. J. Kingham

Representation of the Methodist Episcopal Church
on the St. Edw. Council, Linneville

[Cor. 2777A]
8

From Mr. J. J. Knighan, Supt. M.E. Church, Dubuque, 7 June 1901

The constitution of the St.
Edw. Council, Linneville, ~~follows~~ follows the recommendations of the D.P.D. made in his letter on pages 1-2 of fo. no. 344, 2 to 3.21. Neither in this letter nor in that of the Collector has any mention been made of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Perhaps this is one of the minor Protestant missions in the district for which the Inspector of Schools recommended the allotment of a seat jointly - vide note 1 in para 2 of the Inspector's letter on ~~page 5~~ page 6 of fo. no. 344, 2 to 3.21.
This was, however, omitted by the D.P.D.
There are now four representatives of mission interests on the Council, including one lady elected by the C.M.S. and S.P.G. missions jointly.
Attention is, in this connection, invited to para 1 of office note on page 9 of the same fo. There seems to be no

U.O. Reply No.

I do not support the request. Missions in general are sufficiently well represented at present on Tinnevelley District Educational Council and the Methodist Episcopal Church does not have a sufficiently large number of schools under its control to justify the grant of its request.
