NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 1097, LAW (EDUCATION),
DATED 28TH JULY 1921

[SUBJECT.—Reconstitution of the Madras Students' Advisory Committee.]

From the Director of Public Instruction, R.C. No. 1477, dated 1st April 1921.

The term of office of the present members of the Madras Students' Advisory Committee appointed in G.Os. No. 1079, Home (Education), dated 7th September 1919 and No. 1420, Home (Education), dated 4th December 1920, expires on the 1st June 1921. From the list of names submitted by the Director of Public Instruction it will appear that, excluding the five ex-officio members and the Secretary, nine gentlemen who are members of the committee are proposed for re-appointment and that ten new persons are proposed for appointment. Of the latter, the last five are suggested with reference to the recent recommendation of the Government of India that recently returned Indians should be included in the committee (page 1 of G.O. No. 208, dated 9th February 1921). It may be noted that what India suggested was that the committee might be strengthened by the inclusion of "specialists, especially from the younger professors who are acquainted with recent conditions in Educational work in Great Britain". The Director however states that he has not been able to suggest suitable names from among young professors, but that the names put forward are those of persons who have had recent experience of educational conditions in Great Britain. For orders whether the last five names suggested will be accepted. There seems no objection to the appointment of the four other new names proposed by the Director.

2. Another point for consideration is that it is usual to appoint as a member of the committee the gentleman elected as the University Member to the Legislative Council—vide A on pages 1, 6 and 7 of notes to G.O. No. 1079, Home (Education), dated 7th September 1919, and the names now suggested do not include the present A University Member of the Legislative Council. It is for consideration whether his name may also be included in the list.

3. After a decision is arrived at, draft demi-officials to those selected except those who are ex-officio, asking whether they have any objection to serve on the committee will be submitted.

T.K.—8-4-21.

J. A. DE ROZARIO—9-4-21.

Mr. Ranganathan, I.C.S., is going on leave. Cannot Dr. Savor be appointed in his place?

Also A above?

R. RAMACHANDRA RAO—22-4-21.

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

I should prefer Mr. K. Ananda Rao nominated rather than Dr. Savor. Mr. Ananda Rao is senior to Dr. Savor in the service, but since the intention of the original recommendation was to place a young Civilian on the committee I might suggest in preference to Mr. Ananda Rao or Dr. Savor the name of Mr. S. G. Sengodaiyan, I.C.S.

2. I raise no objection to the inclusion of the name of Mr. S. Srinivasa Ayyangar in the list of committee members.

R. LITTLEHAILS—30-4-21.

LAW (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

With reference to the Director of Public Instruction's note above Mr. S. G. Sengodaiyan, I.C.S., may be appointed in place of Mr. Ranganathna and Mr. S. Srinivasa Ayyangar may also be included in the list.

I am surprised to hear that you have not received my reply to your demi-official letter No. 1186/B-2, dated the 25th May. As soon as I received it I sent a reply signifying my willingness to serve on the Students' Advisory Committee if re-nominated. I addressed my reply to the Fort St. George as your letter was purported to have proceeded from that place. I wonder what happened to my letter. However I formally write here again that I am willing to act on the committee.

With reference to your demi-official I write to state I am willing to serve as a member of the Madras Students' Advisory Committee.

LAW (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

The replies to the reference are now complete. The following points are for orders:—

(1) The term of the committee constituted in G.O. No. 1079, Home (Education), dated 7th September 1919, has expired on the 31st May 1921. But as it has prolonged its existence after that date it seems appropriate to regularise its existence by a formal Government order extending the term of the existing members, say, till the 1st August 1921, from which date the new constitution may begin.

(2) Mrs. Drysdale, Deputy Directress of Public Instruction, one of the proposed members in the new constitution, has proceeded to England on privilege leave and furlough for five months and fifteen days from the 27th May 1921, and Mrs. M. A. Shrinivasa, the present acting Deputy Directress, may be appointed in her place.

(3) We may also ask the Secretary to the Advisory Committee to send up before the 1st April 1923, through the Director of Public Instruction proposals for the next reconstitution of the committee.

2. A draft order is submitted.

Mrs. Shrinivasa has no intimate knowledge of conditions in England. I do not consider that she is the most suitable person available.

Mrs. Drysdale will probably be back from leave shortly and she might be appointed. If, however, it is considered desirable to appoint some one who is now in the country I suggest that Miss de la Hey, Principal of the Queen Mary's College for Women, Madras, would be a suitable person.

LAW (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.
NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 1097, LAW (EDUCATION),
DATED 28TH JULY 1921

[SUBJECT.—Reconstitution of the Madras Students' Advisory Committee.]

*From the Director of Public Instruction, R.C. No. 1477, dated
1st April 1921.*

The term of office of the present members of the Madras Students' Advisory Committee appointed in G.Os. No. 1079, Home (Education), dated 7th September 1919 and No. 1420, Home (Education), dated 4th December 1920, expires on the 1st June 1921. From the list of names submitted by the Director of Public Instruction it will appear that excluding the five ex-officio members and the Secretary, nine gentlemen who are members of the committee are proposed for re-appointment and that ten new persons are proposed for appointment. Of the latter, the last five are suggested with reference to the recent recommendation of the Government of India that recently returned Indians should be included in the committee (page 1 of G.O. No. 208, dated 9th February 1921). It may be noted that what India suggested was that the committee might be strengthened by the inclusion of "specialists, especially from the younger professors who are acquainted with recent conditions in Educational work in Great Britain". The Director however states that he has not been able to suggest suitable names from among young professors, but that the names put forward are those of persons who have had recent experience of educational conditions in Great Britain. For orders whether the five names suggested at K on page 2, current file, will be accepted. There seems no objection to the appointment of the four other new names proposed by the Director.

2. Another point for consideration is that it is usual to appoint as a member of the committee the gentleman elected as the University Member to the Legislative Council—vide A on pages 1, 6 and 7 of notes to G.O. No. 1079, Home (Education), dated 7th September 1919, and the names now suggested do not include the present A University Member of the Legislative Council. It is for consideration whether his name may also be included in the list.

3. After a decision is arrived at, draft demi-officials to those selected except those who are ex-officio, asking whether they have any objection to serve on the committee will be submitted.

T.K.—8-4-21. J. A. DE ROZARIO—9-4-21.

Mr. Ranganatham, I.C.S., is going on leave. Cannot Dr. Savor be appointed in his place?

Also A above?

R. RAMACHANDRA RAO—22-4-21.

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

I should prefer Mr. K. Ananda Rao nominated rather than Dr. Savor. Mr. Ananda Rao is senior to Dr. Savor in the service, but since the intention of the original recommendation was to place a young Civilian on the committee I might suggest in preference to Mr. Ananda Rao or Dr. Savor the name of Mr. S. G. Sengodaiyan, I.C.S.

2. I raise no objection to the inclusion of the name of Mr. S. Srinivasa Ayyangar in the list of committee members.

R. LITTLEHILLS—30-4-21.

LAW (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

With reference to the Director of Public Instruction's note on page 3 ante supra Mr. S. G. Sengodaiyan, I.C.S., may be appointed in place of Mr. Ranganatham and that Mr. S. Srinivasa Ayyangar may also be included in the list.

As soon as I received it I sent a reply signifying my willingness to serve on the Students' Advisory Committee if re-nominated. I addressed my reply to the Fort St. George as your letter was purported to have proceeded from that place. I wonder what happened to my letter. However I formally write here again that I am willing to act on the committee.

LAW (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

The replies to the reference are now complete. The following points are for orders:—

(1) The term of the committee constituted in G.O. No. 1079, Home (Education), dated 7th September 1919, has expired on the 31st May 1921. But as it has prolonged its existence after that date it seems appropriate to regularise its existence by a formal Government order extending the term of the existing members, say, till the 1st August 1921, from which date the new constitution may begin.

(2) Mrs. Drysdale, Deputy Directress of Public Instruction, one of the proposed members in the new constitution, has proceeded to England on privilege leave and furlough for five months and fifteen days from the 27th May 1921, and

A Mrs. M. A. Shrinivasa, the present acting Deputy Directress, may be appointed in her place (G.O. R. No. 181, dated 28th June 1921).

(3) We may also ask the Secretary to the Advisory Committee to send up before the 1st April 1923, through the Director of Public Instruction proposals for the next reconstitution of the committee.

U.O. Reply No. 363, dated 18th July 1921.

Mrs. Shrinivasa has no intimate knowledge of conditions in England. I do not consider that she is the most suitable person available.

Mrs. Drysdale will probably be back from leave shortly and she might be appointed. If, however, it is considered desirable to appoint some one who is now in the country I suggest that Miss de la Hey, Principal of the Queen Mary's College for Women, Madras, would be a suitable person.
