The D.P.D.'s note does not answer fully the Aji's query.
He merely says that no non-official from the Mufassal attended the meeting. For aught we know the meeting that was held may not be the sole & last meeting of the Committee. Their report has not been received & obviously they are to meet again. For the purpose of answering Aji's queries we ought to know definitely what would be the procedure that would be adopted if the Mufassal non-official (eg. Ponnambalam Pillai from Travancore) attended the meeting.
The D.P.D.'s note will be sufficient if there are to be no further meetings. We ought to make some if it is so. If not we should get answers to the Aji's queries. CA

P.T.O

The travelling allowance that might ordinarily be admitted in this case under Art 1006 CSR. and Govt's finance D.L. 2-21 is double first class fare, and a daily allowance of Rs 7-8-0. The law dept. however, propose to admit a single first class fare and a daily allowance of Rs 10. In the that the proposal may be accepted subject to the condition that it is made clear in the draft that the aggregate travelling allowance actually granted does not exceed the amount that would ordinarily be admissible under the rules viz, double first class fare and a daily allowance of Rs 7-8-0.
