To

THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

MADRAS.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter No. 386 of 20 dated 14.9.20

I have the honour to state that my agreement with the Secretary of State was made as from the 1st October 1917. On account of war conditions, I could not sail to India till November 26 1917. During the period from October to November 26, I followed the instructions of the India Office with regard to work in London, visiting important schools at the advice of the London Day Training College and studying Tamil in the London School of Oriental Studies. I submit herewith copies of communications addressed to me by the Secretary in charge of the Judicial and Public Department, from which it will be observed that my delay in England upto 26th November was due to circumstances over which I had no control. I refrained during the period from accepting any remunerative work. I therefore request that my service in the Department may be considered to have begun from 1st October 1917.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. Sergeant
Inspectress of Girls' Schools,
Central Circle.

Madam,

With reference to your application to the Board of Education, I now have the pleasure of informing you that, subject to your satisfying the Medical Board at this Office as to your physical fitness for service in India, the Secretary of State for India has approved your appointment as Inspectress of Schools in Madras. The appointment is in the Indian Educational Service and is subject to the terms stated in the Board of Education Memorandum C.A. No. 548. A draft agreement embodying the terms will shortly be sent to you by the Legal Adviser at this office.

You should attend at this Office for Medical Examination on Wednesday, 18th July at 12 noon.

If found physically fit for appointment you will not be required to leave for Madras until the first week of October and a passage will be engaged for you by this Office after you have signed your agreement. Should the embargo on ladies travelling to India still be in force at that time, you would receive deportation allowance, consisting of two-thirds of Indian pay, converted at 1/6d., equivalent to £ 270. per annum, with effect from the 1st October upto the date when you would be able to sail. In that case you will be expected to devote the period of your detention to gaining experience of Training College work and to studying Tamil or Telugu. You should consult the India Office as to a suitable course.

As you receive a free 1st. Class passage to India, you would not receive pay for the time spent on the voyage.

I am, Madam,
Your Obedient Servant,

19th July 1917.

Madam,

With reference to your letter of the 11th instant I am directed to say that as in the event of your detention in this country after 1st October you will be in receipt of deputation allowance you will be expected to devote all your time from that date to fitting yourself for your duties in India and you could not be permitted to take up or continue any other employment.

I am to express regret that it is impossible at present to say when the embargo on ladies travelling to India is likely to be removed. An intimation will be sent to you as soon as the rules are relaxed.

As regards a suitable course of study should you be detained in England I am to suggest you should call at this Office at 3 p.m. on any day convenient to yourself in the first week in September, and discuss the matter with a member of this Department.

I am, Madam,
Your Obedient Servant,

24th October 1917.

Madam,

I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 20th instant enclosing the form of undertaking as to your advance of pay. You will now be able to draw this advance on application to the Accountant-General at this Office at any time convenient to yourself.

As you have been unable upto the present to secure a passage to the Cape and as it is uncertain how much longer you may be detained in this country you will be placed on deputation with effect from the 1st October in accordance with the second paragraph of your agreement. It is understood that you have been devoting all your time since the beginning of this month to the study of Tamil and Telugu and you will be required to continue so to study until you are able to sail. You will no doubt take advantage of the tuition offered in these tongues at the School of Oriental Studies. As the period of your detention in England is so uncertain it would not be worth while for you to undertake any other courses.

I am to suggest that you should personally call at the Union Castle Line Office and explain the importance of your being permitted to go to India at the earliest possible opportunity and to say that you would be willing to take the first suitable accommodation available.

With reference to the matter of insurance against war risks at sea for life and property, I am desirous to inform you that the whole question is at present under the consideration of the Secretary of State for India in Council.

Miss Sergeant,

2. The fact that Miss Sergeant was liable to be detained in England after the 1st October 1917 is referred in articles (1), (2), and (3) of her agreement with the Secretary of State. This contingency must therefore have been considered when article (14) of the agreement which states that Miss Sergeant's service for leave and pension will count from the date of her entering on the performance of her duties at Madras, was framed. Any addition to her pensionary service not by her agreement contemplated would require the sanction of the Secretary of State.
