Question 53.

To ask the Honourable the Minister for Education whether the Government are prepared to require managers of aided schools to adopt a common time-scale with regard to teachers of similar qualifications.

M.A. Common time-scale for teachers in aided schools.

Law (Edn) Dept.

At present, it is left to the managers of aided institutions to fix the salaries of the teachers in their employ. A rate of salary which will serve to attract capable men for service in a district like Tanjore may prove insufficient in backward districts like Cuddalore & Bellary and it is obviously undesirable for Govt. to fix a rate of salary for adoption throughout the districts of the Presidency. Besides, there are many honorary workers in aided institutions who offer their services

Services for low salaries in spite of their high qualifications.

2 The Calcutta University Commission, while recommending the transfer of the control of Secondary and Intermediate Education to a newly constituted "Board" suggested:—

(i) that in all schools & intermediate colleges under the direct management of the Board a minimum commencing salary (and if thought desirable, a regular rate of increment) should be fixed from time to time for every post in the school or college from the headmastership or Principalship downwards &

(ii) that, in the case of private schools recognized but unaided from public funds, it should be made a condition of recognition that the rates of salary be defined for every teaching post in the school ~~and~~ and that, in the case of aided private schools, ~~also~~ the Board should make it a condition of the grant that a minimum salary be assigned to each post.

in which it urged inter alia that an equal time-scale of pay for teachers of like qualifications should be endorsed to teachers in all classes of schools.

The consideration of the memorandum was thought to be premature before a final decision had been come to as to whether a Board of Secondary & Intermediate Education need be constituted in the Madras Presidency and so no action was taken - vide papers forwarded in No. 1220 at 21, 20th October 1920.

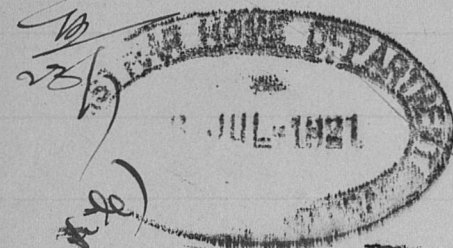

Since then, the local university and the D.P.D. have reported on the recommendations of the Calcutta University Commission and their view is that it is unnecessary to call into existence a Board of Secondary and Intermediate education for this Presidency and the question whether a unification of the teaching service is to be aimed at would probably depend on the ultimate disposal of the recommendation as to the constitution of the Board & the future of Secondary & Intermediate Education in this Presidency.

The answer to the question may be "No".
The file may go to the D.P.D. w/o further remarks.
