Question.

51. To ask the Hon'ble the Minister for Education whether, in view of the fact that the appointments of subordinate education service are not published in the Fort Saint George Gazette ^{orders will be} ~~it is not neces-~~ ^{issued} ~~ary~~ ^{should} that the department ~~may~~ be authorised to start ~~at least~~ a departmental gazette as in ^{the} Police and Registration Departments so that every member may be in touch with the transfers and promotions of his colleagues.

(M.A. Departmental gazette for Education.)

V.R.

Law (Ed.)

Till last year appts. in the Subordinate Education Service used to be notified in the Fort St. George Gazette. In No. 841 ^{Final} ~~Ed.~~, d/21.9.20 Govt. directed that the appts., promotions, transfers etc of non-gazetted officers should not be notified in the Fort St. George Gazette. A perusal of the notes leading up to this G.O. shows that the motive for this decision was the desire to economise in stationery and printing ^{changes}. It therefore seems that the suggestion to issue a Departmental Gazette may not be acceptable to Govt. The D. P. O. may just be asked w/o to state if the ~~discontinuation~~ of publication of ~~the~~ of the Subordinate Ed. Service has resulted in ~~any~~ administrative inconvenience justifying the issue of a departmental Gazette.

2. For orders.

The point was duly brought to notice & the President decided to admit the question with slight alterations which are now embodied in the question LdS 5.7.21

With the introduction of a time scale of pay, there is no need to fix appointments and promotions on the ground of their being made known to superior officers. Postings affect only a few officers and they can be apprised of their transfer by orders communicated to them direct from the D. P. O. office.

U.O. Reply No.

Since the only reason for the issue of a Departmental Gazette which is put forward by the questioner is the fact that the appointments in the subordinate educational service are not now published in the Fort St. George Gazette, I consider that the reply might be--

'The answer is in the negative'.

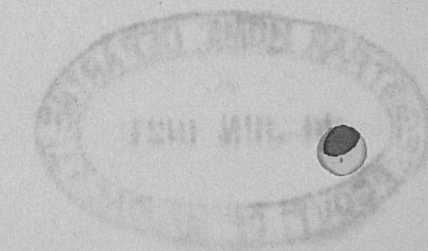

There are, however, many reasons for issuing departmental bulletins which will contain other matter apart from appointments in the subordinate educational service. This was discussed when Sir Henry Stone was the Director of Public Instruction and I was Deputy Director of Public Instruction. I discussed the publication of an Educational Gazette

Gazette with Mr. Natesan of G.A. Natesan & Co., but the proposal fell through because Mr. Natesan wished a guarantee from Government that he would not lose financially if he published an Educational Gazette and Sir Henry Stone was not prepared to give him that guarantee.

I am, however, strongly in favour of the issue of an Educational Gazette under official or semi-official authority and I shall again have the matter discussed and endeavour to have definite and practicable proposals worked out.
