From (Name) the Hon'ble Mr. R. G. Grieve, M.A.,

(Designation) As: Director of Public Instruction,

Madras

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education) Department.
through the Accountant General, Madras.

Sir,

In their order No. 447 Home (Education) dated 10th April 1920 Government sanctioned the continuance up to the 31st March 1921 of the arrangements approved in G.O. No. 1225 Educational dated 3rd November 1914, for the extension of work in Domestic Science in connection with European Schools and also the retention up to that date of the service of Miss Harding, temporary Lecturer in Domestic Economy including Needle-work and Dress-making.

2. The Domestic Science classes are at present on on a temporary basis and the question of recommending their retention permanently had to be deferred pending consideration of the question of extending their benefits to Indian schools. I now recommend that the temporary arrangement made during the war of combining the post of Lecturer in Domestic Economy and Cookery with that of Needle-work and Dress-making should cease and that Miss Harding who is an expert in Needle-work and Dress-making be permanently appointed as organiser of Needle-work and Dress-making for all girls' schools, the appointment being included in the Provincial Educational Service for women.

3. Miss Harding will devote her entire time to the organisation and supervision of the teaching of Needle-work in girls' High Schools and Training Schools in the City of Madras and in the mofussil and will also give courses of lectures from time to time in centres to be selected as necessity arises.

4. Separate proposals are being submitted for the renewal of the post of Lecturer in Domestic Economy including Cookery which was formerly held by Miss Park. Miss Park took leave without allowances from 2nd June 1917 and in G.O.No. 1501 Home (Education) dated 26th November 1917, Government accepted the Accountant General's opinion that her services should be -- terminated but stated that she would be reappointed on a pay of Rs.325 per mensem on her return from Nursing Service. Miss Park has since written expressing her willingness to return if given an adequate salary.

5. Provision for the salary of the teacher of the Domestic Economy class attached to European Schools, at Rs.350 per mensem has been included in the Budget Estimates for the current and ensuing years.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

I have the honour to state that Miss Harding who was doing the work of temporary lecturer in Domestic Economy including needle work and Dress Making with reference to G.O.No. 447 Home (Education) dated 10th April 1921 has been continued in the Department from 1st April 1921 on the assumption that the recommendation made in this office letter R.C.No. 6595/18 dated 3rd December 1920 for the creation of a special instructor in needle work and dress making would be accepted by the Government. As however Miss Harding's fitness to hold the above post is now in question, I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the appointment of Miss Harding to the post of Lecturer in Domestic Economy and Cookery sanctioned in

LAW (EDUCATION)

Department.

Sir,

In continuation of my letter R.C.No. 6595/18 dated 16th July 1921, I have the honour to state that Miss Harding handed over charge of the post of temporary teacher in -- Domestic Economy and Cookery to Miss Park on the forenoon of the 1st instant. Miss Park now reports that she does not feel qualified to handle the needle work and dress making classes which from the year 1917 had been taken by Miss Harding and that she may be allowed to confine herself as before to Domestic Economy and Cookery. The Inspector of European Schools while submitting the above representation points out that the needle work and dress making classes

8
have been very successful and popular and that it is not desirable to close them at present. There is much force in what Mr. Melville says and until I am in a position to suggest some suitable solution, I have the honour to recommend the creation with effect from 1st September 1921 of a temporary post of Instructor in Needle Work and Dress making on Rs 350 per mensem exclusive of temporary addition to pay until 31st March 1922.

2. Considering the importance of vocational training in an elastic system of education for girls the appointment of a full-time instructor of suitable qualifications seems necessary and to this end I suggest the reengagement of Miss Harding. Her work will be mainly confined to the 4 European Girls' Schools and the 3 Indian Government Girls' Schools in Madras. In the former class of Schools, she will be a regular instructor in needle work and dress making while in the latter her services will be utilised chiefly in directing and improving the vocational training of Indian Girls. For example in the Government Muhammadan Hobart Secondary and Training School, Madras, she will draw up and see introduced a complete scheme for the industrial class which has recently been transferred from the Department of Industries to the Department of Public Instruction, and wherein needlework including embroidery forms the prominent feature of the work. She may also hold weekly classes for teachers of Government and aided institutions for Indian Girls.

3. Her work will be in the main confined to Madras but if the opportunity offers, she will be asked to give advice to up-country schools.

4. One peon on Rs 15/- per mensem will be necessary for her.

5. Should my proposal commend itself to Government I suggest that the cost may be debited equally between European and Indian Schools, it being met from the anticipated savings out of the provision in the current years Civil Budget Estimate made for the marginally ^{noted} appointments which have not been filled up yet, under 31-B-(b)(i) Education-Government-Secondary Schools for

for Girls.

Assistant Lecturer, Domestic Economy

Instruction.....Rs 600 ..

the abstract of G. & C. for 1
of 1913 to G. 913 Ed. 3-8-14 (B)

In G.O. no 111 Ed. d 7.2.12 the ^{Sanctioned} Govt. has an experimental measure, the proposal of the D.P.D. to arrange for two series of lectures on Cooking by Mrs Deighton to the European women teachers in the European Schools of Madras & Chingleput. The experiment proved a success and the Govt. again engaged the services of Mrs Deighton on Rs 300 p.m. for a period of 7 months ending on 31.3.1914. Vide G.O. 1049 Ed. d 12.11.13.

B 2. In G.O. no 913 Ed. d 3.8.14 the Govt. ^{on Rs 300 p.m.} Sanctioned the employment of a lecturer on Domestic economy for a period of one year from 1.9.14 and employed Miss Park for the post as Mrs Deighton's services were not then available. They also approved the scheme formulated by the D.P.D. for an extension of the work in Domestic Science in connection with European schools and sanctioned an additional lecturer on Rs 300 p.m. for a period of one year for the needlework and dressmaking course. Vide G.O. no 1225 d 3.11.14.

3. In 1915 the D.P.D. subd. proposals for a more extended course scheme amounting to to the establishment of a Special Training School for teachers of domestic science. But in view of the then financial stringency owing to war, he subsequently withdrew the proposals and asked merely for the continuance of the Scheme sanctioned

C in G.O. no 1225 d 3.11.14. The continuance of the Scheme with the two lectures in Rs 300 p.m. was sanctioned

(18) up to 31.12.18 (vide G.O. 1348 d 8.12.15 & 10.15 d 25.9.16)

Miss Ruby Kenny was appointed Lecturer in Needlework and Dressmaking & Miss Harding as Lecturer in Domestic economy during the absence of Miss Park

4. In May 1918, the Director (Mr. now Sir Henry

G.O. 761

and proposed to place the whole domestic economy work including needlework & dressmaking in charge of Miss Harding and to allow her an assistant on Rs 100 p.m. ~~Rs 100~~ As this arrangement involved

increased work and responsibility to Miss Harding

he proposed to raise her pay to Rs 350 p.m.

(F) (Y) the retention of the services of Miss Harding on

Rs 350 p.m. & her asst on Rs 100 p.m. up to 31.3.20

was sanctioned. But subsequently the D.P.D.

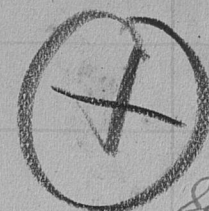

reported that he was unable to recruit a whole time asst on Rs 100 & the Govt. sanctioned his pro posal to employ a part time asst on Rs 30 p.m.

14
in lieu of the whole time asst on Rs 100 p.m (11.12.20)
(H) 8.0.5 & 8.1.20. The retention of the services of Miss Harding up to 31.3.21 & of the part time
asst on Rs 30 p.m up to 30.6.20 only, was sanctioned

P in G.O. no. 447 dt 10.4.20.

5. The D.P. now proposes

(1) that Miss Harding should hereafter be solely employed for needlework & dressmaking

(2) that her services should be permanently
retained

(3) that her appointment should be included in the P.E.S. (women's branch) (pay Rs 200-500)

from 1st April 1921 to such date as Miss Park joins her post or until further orders. The Director is now informing Miss Harding that her services will not be req^d when Miss Park joins duty. Miss Harding's temporary appointment as lecturer in Domestic Economy and Needle-work expired on the 31st March 1921 - G.O. 447 & 10.4.21. The proposed appointment from 1st April 1921 may be sanctioned.

temporary establishment sanctioned for Min Harding as it will be required under Min Park when she joins duty. In G.O. 761 of 12-6-18 the Govt. sanctioned an assistant lecturer on Rs. 100 p.m. for helping Min Harding. This post was continued until the 30th January 1920 under G.O. 1221 of 13-9-18, G.O. 324 of 17-3-1919. As great difficulties were experienced by the D.P.J. in recruiting a full-time assistant, the Govt., in G.O. 5 of 3-1-20, approved a modified proposal to employ a part-time assistant lecturer on a monthly remuneration of Rs. 30. This was continued till the 30th June 1920 (G.O. 447 of 10-4-20) when it was stopped as per the Director's report recorded in G.O. 895 of 10-8-20.

It is not clear whether the D.P.J. wants the permanent employment of a full-time assistant or a part-time assistant. He may be requested to report details.

D.P.J. apparently means the latter but the matter may be cleared

Dear Miss Harding,

118
I saw the file about your case only today and noted on it that I should like to discuss the matter with Mr. Littlehailes. In the circumstances perhaps it is better that ^athe personal interview should be deferred until after I have seen him, which will, I hope, be in the near future. If, however, you would prefer to see me at once and will let me know this, I will fix a time and place without waiting until I have seen Mr. Littlehailes.

Yours sincerely,

The further communication referred to in para 2 above is on
pp. 7-9 CF. It may, in the first instance, be referred to the Accountant General
in charge of the Department.

The temporary establishment referred to in my letter under consideration is only two peons, and provision for meeting the expenditure on their account is already included in the Budget
under the same head as that in which provision has been made for Domestic Economy lecturer.
2. I have not proposed the employment of a part-time assistant but have addressed Government officially today suggesting the creation of an appointment which can be filled by Miss Harding from the 1st of September until the 31st March 1922. Miss Park took charge from Miss Harding from the 1st of August so that Miss Harding is now without employment.

1. A file becomes complicated if suggestions & proposals having no connection with one another be mixed up.
2. There was a single post of temporary lecture in Domestic Eco. & Cookery. Miss Park was the holder of that post & Miss Harding was off for her. In his letter dated 3.12.20 (cf 1) D. P. I proposed
(a) to split up that post & create 2 posts
1. lecturer in Domestic Eco.
2. Organiser of Needle work and (b) to appoint Miss Harding to the latter & include her in the P. E. S. These proposals have been disapproved by M3 and D.P.I. has informed her that her resignation will be read after Miss Park joins. I think that there is nothing more to be done on that letter of the D. P. I. but H. E. may see M3's note at page 12 & C1's note at page 12
3. The temporary post of Dom. Eco lecturer has now been made permanent. Miss Park is of course its present holder. There were two temporary posts attached to that post. The D. P. I. wants that they may be made permanent. They may be made permanent.
4. Miss Park having joined her duty, Miss Harding is now without employment. Miss Park seems to plead inability to handle needlework.
