OFFICE OF THE HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR INDIA,
42, GROSVENOR GARDENS,
LONDON, S.W. 1.

28th JULY, 1921.

FROM THE SECRETARY TO THE HIGH COMMISSIONER,
TO THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS, Education Dept.,

Sir,

I am directed to inform you that Miss C.K.KAUSALYA, who is in receipt of a Special Scholarship of your Government, has applied for an extension for the period of one year to enable her to obtain the B.Sc. Honours Degree of the University of London. Miss Kausalya joined Bedford College on her arrival in England in October 1919, and in June 1920 she passed the Intermediate Science Examination of the University of London in Botany, Chemistry, Physics and Physiology, and is now reading for the B.Sc. Honours Degree in Botany, with Physiology as subsidiary subject, and, according to the Regulations of the University of London, it is impossible for her to take this examination before October 1922. Her application is supported by the Principal of Bedford College, who states that Miss Kausalya has made good progress in her studies and recommends that her scholarship should be extended.

2. In the circumstances, I am to say that the High Commissioner recommends that an extension be granted of this scholarship for the period of one year.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Thomas Quayle.
