(a) In May 1919 the Director of Public Instruction granted permission to open ^{the} IV form in the C. Cunnan Chetty Secondary school, Trivellore, on condition---a condition which was agreed to by the management---that pupils who had read in the Wesleyan Mission school at Trivellore should not be admitted. The Director stated that at the end of three years this condition would be reconsidered.

(b) The answer is in the affirmative;

(c) The Director of Public Instruction was doubtful whether Trivellore was large enough and a sufficiently important centre to maintain two complete High Schools;

(d) The Director of Public Instruction has already stated that if an application to waive the condition now is received from the management of the school it will be considered.

490 Q.—Rao Sahib U. RAMA RAO: To ask the Hon'ble the Minister for Education—

(a) whether it is a fact that an order has been issued by the Director of Public Instruction preventing the Hindu parents of Tiruvallūr from transferring their boys from the Wesleyan Mission to the Hindu High School;

(b) whether it is a fact that this order has been in existence for the last two years;

(c) to state the reason that prompted the Director of Public Instruction to issue such an order; and

(d) whether the Government propose to cancel this order.

A.—(a) In May 1919 the Director of Public Instruction granted permission to open the IV Form in the C. Cunnan Chetti Secondary School, Tiruvallūr, on condition—a condition which was agreed to by the management—that pupils who had read in the Wesleyan Mission School at Tiruvallūr should not be admitted. The Director stated that at the end of three years this condition would be reconsidered.

(b) The answer is in the affirmative.

(c) The Director of Public Instruction was doubtful whether Tiruvallūr was large enough and a sufficiently important centre to maintain two complete high schools.

(d) The Director of Public Instruction has already stated that if an application to waive the condition now is received from the management of the school it will be considered.
