G.O. No. 831, Home (Education), dated 4th July 1919.

ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning the grant of certain concessions to the children of discharged soldiers.

Letter—from A. G. LEACH, Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Ramnad at Madura.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.

Dated—Madura, the 13th August 1921.

No.—R.O.C. 8187-21-A-7.

A pre-war military pensioner has applied to me for the grant of educational concessions to his children. In the case stated in G.O. No. 1204, dated 16th October 1920, the applicant was a pre-war pensioner, but the point then under consideration was the definition of school, not the status of the applicant and there appears to be no specific order extending the concession to pre-war pensioners.

2. The object of the original concession (G.O. No. 402, dated 23rd March 1918) was to encourage recruiting and the subsequent extensions of it were directed to the same object. There appears to be no suggestion in the various papers on the subject that a man who had taken his pension years before the war began should enjoy the concessions.

3. I therefore solicit definite orders in the matter.

Order—No. 1364, Law (Education), dated 21st September 1921.

The Collector of Ramnad is informed that the children of soldiers who retired on pension or were discharged prior to the outbreak of the Great war are not entitled to the educational concessions sanctioned in G.O. No. 831, Home (Education), dated the 4th July 1919.

From the Collector of Ramnad, R.O.C. No. 8187-21-A/7., dated the 13th August 1921.

Under G.O. No. 831, Home (Education), dated the 4th July 1919, the children of discharged soldiers are allowed to read in elementary schools on payment of half the standard rates of fees and, in addition are entitled to books, slates, etc., at a cost not exceeding Rs. 6 per annum per pupil. From the notes sidelined at page 1 of the notes to the Government Order, it is clear that these concessions were meant for the children of soldiers who were on active service during the war and who were subsequently discharged on other than medical grounds but not for misconduct or inefficiency. Children of pre-war pensioners do not therefore appear to be entitled to the concessions.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
