Sir,

The Superintendent, Government Press submits that under section 18 (2) of the Madras Elementary Education Act, 1920, the Minutes of Proceedings of each meeting of the District Educational Council are required to be published in the District Gazette in English and Vernacular. As there is no definite ruling as to whether the cost of publication is to be recovered or treated free, orders are solicited on the point. The Treasury Deputy Collectors of South Kanara and Chittoor have also made references to this office on the subject.

Education is one of great interest & should be being kept to spend a considerable sum on it: It is think therefore necessary to earmark all such expenditure so that it may be easy at any time to ascertain what the total bill amounts to.

In view of the inconsequence of the 22/8/21 report the proposal is accepted.
