suitable proportion of Indians and Europeans in all branches of the service may be carried out, as also his intention that there should be a certain number of European headmasters of schools. Second grade colleges have school departments attached to them and are the nearest approach to high schools of the west, which we have in this Presidency. Messrs. Brierley and Saunders are already in the Indian Educational Service. In their place, I am suggesting separately that the Secretary of State be requested to recruit two persons of qualifications similar to those of men who are recruited by the Board of Education as Inspectors of Technical Education in England, in order that we may have the services of competent men in promoting vocational education in this presidency.

3. M.R.Ry. Arulanandam Pillai is a senior officer of the Madras Educational Service. He has been educated in Europe and has done satisfactory, though not brilliant, work at the Ceded Districts College where he has recently been acting as Principal. I do not propose any of his seniors in the Madras Educational Service for promotion. I do not think that the names of Messrs. Steele and Old should be considered. M.R.Ry. P. Rajagopala Ayyar informed me recently when I was at Kumbakonam that he was content to remain in the Madras Educational Service in Kumbakonam, where he desired to finish his service. He is 52½ years of age. M.R.Ry. T.K. Hanumanta Rao is over 53 years of age and an assistant to M.R.Ry. Rajagopala Ayyar. He has no experience outside this presidency.

4. M.R.Ry. P. Raghavacharya Avargal has acted as Inspector of Schools for 2½ years. His work is not brilliant but it is time that we decided whether he is to be reverted from the Indian Educational Service or whether he is to be confirmed in that service. His work has been done satisfactorily, though it is somewhat colourless in character. At the same time, it is sufficiently satisfactory to consider him for permanent appointment to the Indian Educational Service and he is desirous of obtaining additional experience as head of a second grade college. I recommend that he be posted permanently to such a college. He has European educational qualifications and is in the Government of India list of candidates considered suitable for appointments in the Indian Educational Service.

5. M.R.Ry. Arulanandam has been asked to submit an application in the prescribed form for appointment in the Indian Educational Service and it will be submitted on receipt.

6. It is also proposed that the officers who have been holding the Principalships of the abovementioned colleges in the Madras Educational Service be appointed to act in the Indian Educational Service with effect from 1st September 1920.

7. If the above recommendations are approved, the lien of Mr. Steele who is the permanent Principal of the Mangalore College and of M.R.Ry. S.V. Venkateswara Ayyar who is permanent Principal of the Brennen College will be moved to vacant posts in the Madras Educational Service.

The D.P.I.'s recommendations may be approved. At present, excluding Mr Allen, who has retired from the 25th instant, there are 20 Europeans and 22 Indians in the I.E.S.

2. The postings of Messrs Brierley & Saunders may be notified at once. The appointment of Messrs A. Arulandam Pillai & P. Ragha Acharyar permanently to the Indian Educational Service requires the sanction of the Secretary of State. The Govt. of India may be requested to obtain the sanction on receipt of the application of Mr Arulandam Pillai which the D.P.I has called for. No such application is necessary in respect of Mr Raghava Acharyar as his name is already included in the Govt. of

3. In consequence of the postings of Messrs Brierley & Saunders ~~[illegible]~~ now proposed, two other posts in the Indian Edl. Service in the Inspectorate will fall permanently vacant. The Director suggests that two officers qualified to ~~[illegible]~~ organise & supervise vocational education should be recruited in England as Inspectors.

~~The~~ In connection with a similar suggestion made by the Director in August last, the Hon'ble the Minister considered that it was not urgent & that Mr. Porrett & his assistant might organise vocational training classes for the time being. The question may, however, be further considered when the D.P.I addresses Govt. ~~forwarding~~ separately which he proposes to do.
