The general rules in the C.S.R.

apply to the travelling allowances drawn by members of local boards. Though there is no specific provision in the G.B. Manual in regard to the payment of halting allowances to members of local boards, halting allowances may be paid to them at the rates admissible to second class officers under the Civil Service Regulations.

With these remarks the file may be sent to the Law (Edn) Dept.

What became of the <sup>question</sup> ~~refce~~ which was raised some time ago as to whether members of local boards were entitled to halting allow?

I believe a refce was made to the Act. Civil. Rule 125 speaking of halting allowances to P<sup>ts</sup> trust to members.
