0/3-5 of districts (F)

The D.P.D. whose remarks were quoted ~~recom~~ forwarded a list of forms which he considered sufficient for the needs of D.E.Cs. and orders were issued sanctioning the supply of these forms to all D.E.Cs.
(F) — HKS of 29.9.21. The 'periodical register' is not included in the list.

The D.P.D. may be asked whether the supply of the register to D.E.Cs is necessary.

U.O. Reply No.

The periodical current register is unnecessary.
The only statements which D.E.Cs will ordinarily receive monthly are the Sub Assistant Inspectors' inspection reports. The best way for keeping these reports and ^{for} check^{ing} their punctual receipts is to MS.

No. 1648, dated 18 - 11 - 1921.

It is understood ~~The Govt are informed~~ that the only Statements which the Dist: Ed: Councils will ordinarily receive monthly are the Sub Asst: Inspectors' inspection reports. The best way of keeping these reports and of checking their punctual submission would be by keeping a running file of all successive reports for each range separately. All other returns will be mostly annual and it would suffice if a Calendar showing the returns to be be despatched received and to be despatched as kept in the office These circumstances, the Govt. do not consider it necessary to supply copies of the periodical current register to the officers of Dist. Ed. Councils.
