A draft order ~~is~~ sanctioning the alterations proposed is subd. In the file relating to the Calcutta University Commission's recommendations it was noted that Resn 24 passed by the Senate in which the proposed alterations are based required no no action on the part of Govt. ~~and that~~ and that ~~it was~~ it was within the competence of the Syndicate to act upon the resolution.

The alterations in the regulations may ^{perhaps} be sanctioned without waiting for the report of the Committee recently appointed. If this view is approved, the draft submitted below is for appl.

Otherwise the file will have to lie over until the Committee's report is received.

We may wait in this case.

I think Govt. may sanction as requested. It is not likely that the Committee will suggest any change ^{in this matter} and in case it does it will be considered along with the other changes that may be recommended by the Committee.

In pursuance of proposition in Oriental Group the alterations proposed may be sanctioned. The whole subject will have to be revised on the report of the Committee.
