Sir,

*The Secretary to the Govt of Madras
Educational Depart
Madras*

I beg to send herewith a copy of the book entitled
"HISTORY of MIDAVAL HINDU INDIA" by C. V. Vaidya, M.A., LL.B.
for favour of your patronage and encouragement.

The book is a scholarly production and is projected to deal with a period of some six centuries from 600 A.D. to 1200 A.D., which witnessed the rise, culmination and fall of many a Hindu Kingdom and Empire. This period in its entirety has not been hitherto studied by any scholar, Indian or European with the fullness that it amply merits. The book bristles with learned notes and appendices on social matters covered by the above period. All this emphatically speaks of the author as a research scholar. As it is a scholarly production, it is not likely to command the popular market.
Hence it is necessary that it should receive the patronage of Government, States, Universities and learned persons.

With this in view I am sending herewith a copy of the book in the hope that it might be referred to the proper authorities, who might recommend the purchase from the undersigned of at least hundred copies for distribution as a present amongst scholars who are generally poor and among institutions patronised by you. The price of the book is Rs. 6/8 only.

Thanking you in anticipation of an early and favourable reply.

Yours faithfully,

h. Sandesai

Manager.

Copy of a letter dated the 29th March 1921, from the Manager, The Oriental Book Supplying Agency, 15 Shukrawar Peth, Poona (India) Poona City, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education.

I beg to send herewith a copy of the book entitled 'History of Mediaeval Hindu India' by C.V. Vaidya, M.A., L.L.B., for favour of your patronage and encouragement.

The book is a scholarly production and is projected to deal with a period of some six centuries from 600 A.D. to 1200 A.D., which witnessed the rise, culmination and fall of many a Hindu Kingdom and Empire. This period in its entirety has not been hitherto studied by any scholar, Indian or European with the fullness that it amply merits. The book bristles with learned notes and appendices on social matters covered by the above period. All this emphatically speaks of the author as a research scholar. As it is a scholarly production, it is not likely to command the popular market. Hence it is necessary that it should receive the patronage of Government, States, Universities and learned persons.

With this in view I am sending herewith a copy of the book in the hope that it might be referred to the proper authorities, who might recommend the purchase from the undersigned of at least 100 copies for ~~distribution~~ distribution as a present among scholars who are generally poor and among institutions generally. The price of the book is Rs. 6-8-0 only.

Thanking you in anticipation of an early and favourable reply.
