Mr. Razulullah Sahib is his report on the application for the affiliation of the Sir. Muhammadan College in Group D of the B.A. Course. It is stated that the Arabic and Urdu classes were held in a small room in the ground floor of the Principal's quarters - vide para 3 (c) of his report at page 7 of S.O. 505-D.2.4.24 in the letter file. Presumably owing to lack of accommodation some of the classes are also held in a shed.

Clause (b)

The question of accommodation for the College classes in the Principal's quarters has not been considered by Govt. The construction of new buildings for the College will no doubt take some time, but the question is whether there are any quarters in the Engineering College buildings available for the Principal. Out of the six I.E.S. Officers attached to the Engineering College only three are provided with quarters. It seems therefore doubtful whether the Principal could be accommodated there. The other Cause is that he is a married man and his family will not also be accommodated in the quarters. It is therefore suggested that the Government should consider the possibility of providing quarters for the Principal in the Engineering College buildings.

U.O. Reply No.

On February the 3rd 1921 plans and estimates for constructing a building for the Government Muhammadan College were submitted to Government. On the 24th August 1921 Government issued a memo asking for revised plans and estimates, that is, after a delay of more than 6 months.

On the 27th June 1918 an expenditure of Rs. 6,080 was sanctioned in the Public Works Department for the construction of a temporary building for the new college classes for Muhammadans in Umdah Bagh, Mount Road, Madras. A revised estimate of Rs. 6800 was sanctioned in the Public Works Department on the 21st January 1919. These temporary buildings are tiled but they are not sheds. The college classes were originally held in these temporary buildings, while the library, the Arabic class and the lecturers' retiring room were located on the ground floor of the residence of the Principal. The classes are still held in the same temporary buildings but the library, the Arabic class and the lecturers' retiring room are now located in the main school building.

There is no possibility of the accommodation being considered satisfactory until additional buildings are put up. If there is any possibility of funds being available for the erection of pucca buildings in the near future conditions will become satisfactory. If not, additional temporary structures will have to be erected.

It was

It was the desire of the college Principal not to reside in the Principal's quarters. He was, however, obliged to do so since no rented accommodation was available outside.

It will not be possible to allocate ~~the Principal's quarters~~ the Principal's quarters for college work since there is a hostel in the same compound and accommodation is necessary on the spot for the warden of the hostel who is the Principal of the college. If accommodation is found outside the college compound for the Principal it will be necessary to find a residence within the compound for some other senior member of the staff, for example, for the headmaster of the school, who will act as warden. It is thus not possible to move the Principal to some rented building.

I suggest the following answers:-

(a) 'College classes are accommodated partly in temporary buildings which are tiled but which are not sheds and partly in the main school building';

(b) 'The Principal of the College is required as warden of the hostel to reside in the college compound.'
