Dear Sir,

I submit along with this a copy of my recent publication, "South India and her Muhammadan Invaders" and request the favour of your perusal of the work with a view to accordng. some patronage for the work by the Madras Government.

Under the present University Organisation, there is no arrangement for publication by the University of works like these. I need hardly say how very difficult and expensive it is to get these works to be published at a time like this. Not being of the class of school books largely in demand for use as text-books, sales of works like this would be comparatively slow. I shall therefore be very grateful if you can see your way to extend to the work a liberal patronage in any manner usual in such cases.

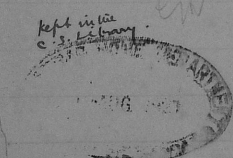

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

K.S.

K. Srinivasan

Mr. Krishnaswami Ayyangar is admittedly a leading authority on the Empire of Vizianagaram and his studies have led him to treat the conditions of South India on the eve of ^{the} Muhammadan invasion. His book now published is practically indispensable to the students of South Indian history.

I shall instruct Principals of first and second grade colleges, and headmasters of High schools and also the Principals of the Training Colleges to purchase the book.

- (1) Does the Chief Librarian of Commemorative Library make his own selection of books? Why not?
- (2) We buy a book for that library?

29/11/21

(1) yes.

(2) But in some cases the Govt sanction
 the purchase of books for the library,
 the cost being met from the Contingent of the Library. This is being done with a view to patronize useful books and publications and after ascertaining that the Library has not purchased copies. In the present case, it has been ascertained that the book has not yet been bought by the Library.

25.11.21 30.11.21

If the cost of the book is to be met from Library funds I will not insist any book on the Library.
