~~letter to give the details as to the~~
(b) Of the four Brahman Fellows, three belong to Madras, one to the mufassal since M.R.Ry., K.R. Ramaswami Ayyangar is employed in the Engineering College, Guindy, which is outside the Madras City. The one non-Brahman Hindu, one Christian, two Muhammadans and six Europeans belong to Madras, while one Muhammadan and seven Europeans belong to the mufassal.

(c) Mr. Satyamurti is one of the three ordinary Fellows elected by Registered Graduates on the 10th December 1920 and his election was approved by H.E. the Chancellor. He was not nominated to the Senate as stated in the question. Whether he is a "nationalist" and active non-Cooperator it is not possible to say definitely. From his speeches as reported in the newspapers the general presumption is that he is a "nationalist". In view of the facts that he sought himself to be elected on the Senate and that he ^{has} began his practice at the Bar, he is not considered to be an active non-Cooperator. The remarks of the Public Department may be invited U.O. on this point.

2. The following draft answer is suggested:-

- (a) Four Brahmans, ~~and~~ one non-Brahman Hindu, one Christian, three Muhammadans and thirteen Europeans.
- (b) Three Brahmans and one non-Brahman Hindu, one Christian, two Muhammadans and six Europeans belong to Madras and one Brahman, one Muhammadan and seven Europeans belong to the mufassal.
- (c) Mr. Satyamurti is not a nominated but an elected Fellow of the University. (he is generally considered to be a nationalist but not a non-Cooperator).
