general Pub. is concerned only with questions as to the conduct of Gout. Servants. Particular cases of individual officers are for disposal in the administrative dept. concerned.
Such cases, if subd, need not perhaps be referred to Pub. Dpt., a doubt or for an interpretation of a rule.

2. In the present case the following remark is called for. Local ruling (ii) under Rule 14 merely authorises a Govt. servant under certain conditions to take part in the management of a cooperative society & does not refer to the holding of office. It appears therefore that the case cannot be brought under this ruling, but only under local ruling (iii) under Rule 12. This rule permits holding of office in a cooperative society (including Central bank) only when such society is composed wholly of Govt. servants. (It will be observed that this rule is silent on the question whether the office is a paid one or honorary and it will therefore apply to either case).

It is subd. that, before according permission in the present case the Home Secy, Dpt. will have to satisfy themselves that the Madras Christian Central Cooperative Society are registered exclusively for the benefit of Govt. servants.
