Delhi, the 17th January 1921.

Kunwar Maharaj Singh, C.I.E.,

Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of India,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

(10) I am directed to refer to your letter no. 1415,.....
dated the 3rd December.....1920.....on the subject of the reorganisation of the women's educational services in India.

2. In paragraph 6 of this Department letter no. 855, dated the 6th July 1920, it was stated that selection grade posts will be permissible for approximately 20 per cent of the cadre, but in cases where the provincial cadre is very small, one member of the service will be considered eligible irrespective of the percentage maximum. Further that the Government of India will fix the number of such posts both for India as a whole and for each province when the number of posts in the women's branch of the Indian Educational Service had been reported.

3. Although all replies have not been received to this circular, the Government of India consider it desirable to distribute selection grade posts to the various provinces, and for this purpose they are pleased to allot one such post to the Presidency of Madras..... This post can be filled with effect from the 1st December 1919, but the local Government need not, unless they so desire, fill it.

4. The promotion of officers to the selection grade ~~rests~~ rests with the local Government, but the Government
