SIR,

The Committee at its meeting on the 13th October 1921, considered a petition (sent herewith in original) from Miss J. Sprowles, Asst. Mistress for whom a pension of Rs. 20 has been sanctioned in G.O. No. 1001, Law (Education) Department, dated 5th July 1921 and unanimously resolved that the Government may kindly be addressed to sanction a pension of Rs. 59-1-9 to which she would have been entitled under the ordinary rules.

The Committee trust that the case will have the sympathetic consideration of Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter dated 14-7-1921 informing me that I had been awarded a pension of Rs. 20/-. This is a very small reward for the 28 best years of my life (26 as a teacher and 2 as a pupil teacher) which I gave to the school, during which time I worked my very hardest and did my best, so I request that you will kindly put my case before the Gentlemen of the committee and ask them to kindly consider whether, in their opinion, this small sum is sufficient to keep one in food, not mentioning clothing and housing in these expensive times, when all other wages and pensions have been increased proportionately to meet the high cost of living which will be borne out by one simple fact. The small house in which my widowed mother and myself are residing in, was originally taken over at a monthly rental of Rs. 12/- This has been increased from time to time and at present has reached the high figure of Rs. 25/- per month.

As already explained in my previous letter to General Burnett Stuart, I have been the main support of my mother for years, there being no male members of our family living.

Yours faithfully,
J. E. Sprowles.

Please see the notes and order in fr. 1008 of 5.7.21, in which Miss Sprowles was granted a pension of Rs. 20 p.m. as a special case. The committee now recommends an increase of pension of Rs. 59-1-4 ^(which she would have got had she remained in the Govt service) ~~the file may~~

~~the same to be accepted~~ Since the Lawrence Memorial School has recently been provincialized, and since the provisions of the C.S.D.
will be strictly applicable to the staff of the school, it would appear that there would be no case for the grant of ~~an enhanced~~ of an enhanced pension to Miss Sprowles who left the school in 1911.
