PROF. P. MUKHERJI
PRESIDENCY COLLEGE

47, AMHERST STREET

Calcutta, 24th Oct. 1920.

To

The Private Secretary

To His Excellency the Governor of Madras.

Sir,

I beg to send you under separate cover a copy of my book on "The Indian Constitution" just published by Messrs Thacker Spink & Co. of Calcutta. I shall be obliged if you would kindly place it in His Excellency's hands with a request that His Excellency's Government may be pleased to extend their patronage to the book.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

P. Mukherji

Home (Mis) Dept.

[C.N. 4953] From the P.S. Memo No 923-1
of 4.11.20

Subject: — Govt patronage — "Indian Constitution"

Refr

The book contains the text of the Govt of India Act 1919 with an exhaustive commentary thereon as well as the Indian Legislative Rules 1920 & C. On the whole the book appears to be a useful one & Govt may perhaps extend their patronage to it. The copy has not yet been taken for use in this Dept. The Public Dept. may be requested to say how many copies of the book they would like to buy. A copy ^{or two} may be for the Govt. Library.
