Letter—from Messrs. KING AND PARTRIDGE, Solicitors, Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.

Dated—the 7th September 1920.

[Leech Scholarship Fund for Muhammadan boys.]

With reference to G.O. No. 259, dated the 26th February 1920, we have the honour to inform you that we have been in communication with the Secretary to Government, Home (Miscellaneous) Department, in connexion with the milk fund proposed to be established by Mr. A. J. Leech.

When forwarding to the Government of Madras draft applications in connexion with both the funds, we at the same time forwarded a draft declaration of trust in the case of this fund and in the case of the milk fund a draft declaration of trust and a draft scheme.

On the 25th March last we wrote to the Government, Home (Miscellaneous) Department, asking whether a draft declaration of trust was required in India as it is by the Charity Commissioners in England. We pointed out that the objection to a declaration of trust is that it requires to be stamped as a settlement and we suggested that if such a declaration of trust was not required, the objects of the trust should be embodied in a scheme.

Government in their reply of the 8th July last stated that there was no necessity for the submission of a draft declaration of trust if the objects of the trust are embodied in a scheme. We have accordingly altered the draft declaration of trust and put it into the form of a scheme embodying the objects of the charity therein.

We now submit this draft scheme with an application signed by Mr. G. Lynde, the duly-constituted attorney of Mr. A. J. Leech, for an order under sections 4 and 5 of the Charitable Endowments Act, 1890, for vesting the property in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments and for the settlement of the scheme by the Government of Madras.

ENCLOSURES

In the matter of the charity entitled, 'the Leech Scholarship Fund,' and

In the matter of the Charitable Endowments Act (Act VI of 1890).

(b) settling a scheme for the administration of the charity and giving all necessary and proper incidental directions in relation thereto.

Dated this 10th day of September 1920.

A. J. LEECH,
By his Attorney G. Lynde.
