M A D R A S.

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose herein an application received from the Pudukkottai Darbar presented to them by one K. Narasimha Ayyar, a permanent clerk in the Registration Department of the State.

2. The Darbar state that the clerk wishes to appear for the Government Special Test Examinations but he does not possess the necessary general Educational qualification prescribed for applying for the Examination. They think that the Tests for which the clerk wishes to apply will be useful to him for the efficient discharge of the duties in the several branches attached to the Registration Department.

The Darbar therefore request me to recommend to the Government to grant him the necessary exemption to appear for the Government Special Test Examinations. I support the request of the Darbar and solicit the favour of sanction of the Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
