Department.
/Through The Accountant-General/
Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 270, Home/Education dated 5th November 1920 appointing Mir Zynuddin Sahib Bahadur, Assistant Professor, Law College, Madras, to act as Sub-Professor Professor in the same college during the employment of M.R. G. Madhavan Nair Avargal on other duty the Principal of the college reports that the Accountant-General has sent him a pay slip to the effect that Mir Zynuddin Sahib is entitled to draw in his new appointment a salary of Rs 350 only including an acting allowance of Rs 100 per mensem and he states that it would be difficult to attract competent men to act as Lecturers unless the full pay of the post is allowed to them and that the college should in this respect be treated as a special case. I may also draw the attention of Government to the fact that the posts of Professors and assistant Professors in the Law College are non-pensionable.

T
I consider the Principal's recommendation to be reasonable and have accordingly the honour to request that Government will be pleased to allow Mir Zynuddin Sahib to draw under Article 144 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations the full salary of the post to which he has been appointed to act, viz, Rs 500 per mensem. A similar concession was allowed in G.O.No. 505, Home/Education/ dated 27th April 1920 in the case of M.R. Mys K.P. Lakshmana Rau and B.C. Santharanarayana Rau.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Durbhumaiah Chell

Law HOME (Education) DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

With reference to G.O. No. R 2 dated the 4th January 1921 notifying Mir Zyuddin Sahib Bahadur, Ag. Professor, Law College, Madras to be Professor in the College with effect from the 18th November 1920 consequent on the appointment of M.R.Ry C. Madhavan Nair, Avl. as Government Pleader, I have the honour to point out that M.R.Ry C. Madhavan Nair was holding the appointment of Government Pleader, Madras only in addition to his duties as Professor, Law College and Acting Principal during the period from 18th November to 31st December 1920 (Vide G.O. No. 163 Law (Judicial) dated the 22nd January 1921). Mir Zyuddin Sahib Bahadur may, therefore, be confirmed as Professor of the Law College only with effect from 1st January 1921 the date on which M.R.Ry Madhavan Nair, Avl. ceased to be Professor and Ag. Principal. I would therefore

therefore request that necessary amendment to G.O. No. R.2 Law (Education) dated the 4th January 1921 may be issued.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. K. Manuwar
