Home (Education) Department

Registrar's remarks in the file regarding the exemption of Bhasyam Ayyangar from passing the Account Test (temporary).

What about the question raised in the Collector's letter? No doubt the Board ignores it. But have we considered the question before?

C.R.1-12-20.

I wanted to trace out whether we have ever considered the question before and whether we have in any previous case stated that a pass in Account test (lower) is enough for the purpose of the new Account test. I could not trace any such paper. Hence the delay in the disposal of the file.

The draft may issue.

T.K.2-12-20

Yes

Please examine the question separately.

C.R.3-12-20

Home (ED) Dept

Reg.

The question raised is whether candidates who have passed the Account Test, ~~higher~~ lower grade, will be required to pass the new Account Test. This does not appear to have been considered before. The replacing of the higher and lower grades by the present Account Test was directed in

(F) (R) in G.O. 896 201. of 9. 10. 1912; but
his order does not mention anything
on the point raised.

2. In G.O. 1965 Rev. of
(K) 18.5.1918, the Govt. passed orders
regarding the simplification of the Revenue Tests. It was then decided that the higher and lower grades
of this Test should be replaced by a single test and that persons who have already passed the test
by the higher or lower grade will not be required to pass this new test — Para 2 of Rev. Dept. note on 9.5 and para 2 of order in (K) G.O. 1965 Rev. of 18.5.1918. Similarly when the higher and lower grades
of the criminal Judicial Test were replaced by a single test in 1918,
the question was considered whether candidates who have passed the higher or lower grades of the Test
will be required to pass the new Test and this was decided in the negative — Est. Dept. notes on 11.4.5 of notes in G.O. 1237 Home (G.O.)
(J) of 5.6.1918, ^{paraphrase C.G.E.} ~~the letter on 11.4.5~~

and the notes on p. 1 of notes in
 82. 982 E.M. of 26. 7. 1918. The above decisions as regards the Revenue and the Criminal Judicial Tests are embodied in the Public Service and the Special Tests Notifications —
 p. 14 of (N) and bottom of p. 4 of (O).

(A)

3. It is submitted
 that, on the analogy of the above
 two tests, it would appear equitable to decide in the case of Account Test that candidates who have passed the ~~higher~~ lower grade will not be required to pass the new test. It could hardly have been the intention of Govt. to make such a distinction in the case of the Account Test alone.

4. If the above is approved, necessary additions may be made to the Public Service and
 the Special Tests Notifications.
 For orders.

The question put to us by Home (Education) is ^{who have passed Acc Test (Lower) should} whether the candidates ^{will} be required to pass the new Account test.

2. So far as the Finance department is concerned the Account test is prescribed for

- (1) all clerks on Rs. 100 and upwards in the Chief Sectt., and
- (2) the Accountant in the Govt. Press

3. The above classes of officers were required to pass the Account test (Higher) prior to the issue of orders replacing the Account tests, Higher and Lower grades, by the new Account test. In the circumstances, the ^{question raised by} remarks of the Home (Edn.) dept. ~~that~~ ^{where these} candidates who have ^{previously} passed Account test (Lower) ~~should~~ ^{be} ~~be~~ required to pass the new Account test, does not arise so far as this dept. is concerned. The file may, it is submitted, be returned to Home (Educn).
department with these remarks.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Reference concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies or letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
