Sir,

In continuation of this Department letter no. 1277, of a letter from the High Commissioner for India dated the 8th January 1921 on the subject of the Indian Students' Branch at his office.

2. The Government of India have issued a communiqué on the subject (copy enclosed) and I am to request that the Secretary of the Students Advisory Committee may be informed and such other action taken to make it known as widely as possible that the alteration in the designation of the officers in charge of the Indian Students' Branch will in no way affect the work of the branch.

Copy of a letter dated the 8th January 1921, from the High Commissioner for India, India Office, London, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education,

It has been suggested that, in consequence of the substitution of the posts of Joint Secretaries to the High Commissioner for Indian Students' work for those of Educational Adviser for Indian Students to the Secretary of State and Local Adviser to Indian Students in London, some doubt may arise in the minds of Indian Students and their parents and guardians as to whether the Indian Students's Branch at this Office will continue to perform the duties of advising students who come to this country from India and undertaking the administration of the funds of those whose parents or guardians so desire. I am therefore directed by the High Commissioner to request that steps may be taken, by the issue of a communiqué to the Press, and in such other ways as the Government of India may deem fit, to make it known as widely as possible in India that the alteration in the designation of the officers in charge of the Indian Students' Branch will in no way affect the work of the Branch, which will continue on the same lines as heretofore. One of the Joint Secretaries will perform the duties of Local Adviser to Indian Students in London and Head of the Bureau of Information, and the only change necessitated by the amalgamation of the two sections of the Branch and the alteration in the designation of the officers in charge of it, is that communications previously addressed to the Educational Adviser at the India Office or the Local Adviser at 21, Cromwell Road, should, after the receipt of this letter, be addressed to the Joint Secretary to the High Commissioner at 42 Grosvenor Gardens, S.W.1.

Your most obedient servant

Secretary to the Government of India

Copy of a letter dated the 8th January 1921, from the Commissioner for India, India Office, London, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Education.

It has been suggested that, in consequence of the substitution of the posts of Joint Secretaries to the High Commissioner for India Indian Students' work for those of Educational Adviser for Indian Students to the Secretary of State and Local Adviser to Indian Students in London, some doubt may arise in the minds of Indian Students and their parents and guardians as to whether the Indian Students' Branch at this Office will continue to perform the duties of advising students who come to this country from India and undertaking the administration of the funds of those whose parents or guardians so desire. I am therefore directed by the High Commissioner to request that steps may be taken, by the issue of a communiqué to the Press, and in such other ways as the Government of India may deem fit, to make it known as widely as possible in India that the alteration in the designation of the officers in charge of the Indian Students' Branch will in no way affect the work of the Branch, which will continue on the same lines as heretofore. One of the Joint Secretaries will perform duties of Local Adviser to Indian Students in London and Head of the Bureau of Information, and the only change necessitated by the amalgamation of the two sections of the Branch and the alteration in the designation of the officers in charge of it, that communications previously addressed to the Educational Adviser at the India Office or the Local Adviser at 21, Cromwell Road, should, after the receipt of this letter, be addressed to the Joint Secretary to the High Commissioner at 42, Grosvenor Gardens, S.W.1.

Government of India,
Department of Education,

Delhi, the 17th February 1921.

In consequence of the substitution of the posts of Joint Secretaries to the High Commissioner for India
Students' work for those of Educational Adviser for Indian Students to the Secretary of State and Local Adviser to Indian Students in London, it is apprehended that doubts may arise in the minds of some Indian Students and their parents and guardians as to whether the Indian Students' Branch at the India Office will continue to perform the duties of advising students who go to England from India and of undertaking the administration of the funds of those whose parents or guardians so desire. It is accordingly announced for general information that this change in the designation of the officers in charge of the Indian Students' Branch will in no way affect the work of the branch, which will continue on the same lines as heretofore. One of the Joint Secretaries will perform the duties of Local Adviser to Indian Students in London and Head of the Bureau of Information, and the only change necessitated by the amalgamation of the two sections of the Branch and the alteration in the designation of the officers in charge of it, is that communications previously addressed to the Educational Adviser at the India Office or the Local Adviser at 21, Cromwell Road, should now be addressed to the Joint Secretary to the High Commissioner at 42, Grosvenor Gardens, S.W.1.
